Los Angeles, CA: Sales Funnels, or landing pages, are the newest most popular way to target business audiences online. Sales funnels are landing pages that walk customers through the buying process by a series of pages divided into several steps. Each step of the funnel differs dependent on the particular sales model and product or service being offered by the company.

ClickFunnels is a smart funnel builder, meaning that their software allows business owners to create marketing funnels for their Small Businesses with just a few simple clicks of the mouse. This online software helps to easily build landing pages, sales funnels, website or membership sites, and even shopping carts. It costs much less than other options and takes away the need to hire a full tech team to get the job done. The software gives builders everything they need to market, sell, and deliver products and services online with zero experience.

With this free trial to ClickFunnels, businesses are able to create Squeeze Page Funnels, Automated

Webinar Funnels, Product Launch Funnels, and Sales Funnels integrated with many favorite shopping carts, Membership sites, and much more. With ClickFunnels free trial, it is easy to create a marketing and sales funnel from the ground up as it incorporates all the core elements needed to have a functional and effective sales funnel.

To be able to see a demo of the software in action, those interested can follow this link. After watching the demo video, those interested are able to get a free account and immediately start setting up funnels for their business.
