

Restaurants Can Now GetDandy To Remove Negative Reviews

August 09, 2022

Irvine, California - August 09, 2022 -
GetDandy, an Irvine, CA based AI software automation company that specializes in the removal of negative reviews, would like to reach out to restaurants that may be in search of a proprietary technology that helps identify fake bad online reviews and dispute automation service. With their help, restaurants can get rid of reviews that may harm their reputation among customers and thus improve their online rating. Visit their website at www.getdandy.com for more information on how their review removal services work. GetDandy, using advanced AI software, is changing how various businesses manage their online reputation and getting access to their services is as easy as visiting their website.

?We can help you consistently remove bad reviews, manage all reviews in one dashboard and generate positive reviews via SMS and Email,? says GetDandy. ?Our machine learning program searches out potential violations in reviews, and you or your clients can challenge those reviews with the review platform host. Never again be held to the whims of a defamatory or false review. Help get your business discovered by new patients. The more reviews you have, the more visibility you earn and the higher you rank in search and maps. And that means more happy customers searching for your services. Send out SMS or email surveys to your customers, gain valuable insight into their experience and surface those experiences to the review sites that matter most to your business. New reviews are great for SEO and great for your business.?

More reviews usually mean more business as customers often choose a particular store based on what is written about it online. This makes it very important to make sure that they are seeing the right reviews and that defamatory, untrue reviews are removed to make way for real customer experiences. Managing an online reputation has a direct effect on profit, which is why GetDandy's negative review removal services are so important for businesses. With a season review team and powerful software, GetDandy allows users to focus on more important aspects, like their business, instead of having to think about bad reviews and how to get rid of them. The team has a great deal of experience working with clients in a wide variety of industries, and they know what it takes to help many different kinds of businesses build a good reputation in their field.

GetDandy works on a number of platforms, including Google, Yelp, Facebook Business, Tripadvisor and more. They have removed thousands of bad reviews from these and other review sites, and a large number of high profile clients trust GetDandy to quickly handle negative reviews. By allowing users to keep a close eye on their business? reputation, Dandy has revolutionized the way businesses safeguard their online presence and continues to offer new and better ways to ensure that their clients? businesses maintain a positive image. A large number of clients have left reviews of Dandy?s negative review removal services which can be found on Dandy?s website.

Mario A. of ABC Chiropractic had this to say about working with the reputation management service, ?This is the second time I?ve used GetDandy to help remove negative Google and Yelp reviews. It?s unfortunate customers will sometimes put inappropriate or incorrect reviews on the web with no recourse ? unless you hire GetDandy. They will address the issue immediately and the reviews get removed. The staff are great to work with, especially Dora. Thanks, again!?

AJ Saleem, Director at Suprex Learning, said in their review, ?Exceptional service because I saw some results in the beginning early on. GetDandy did a great job of removing a couple of negative reviews. They did a great job of that in just a few months, and I was happy to see that with the invested value. It was definitely a value-added service."

For more information on GetDandy and their various services, including their reputation management services, interested parties may visit the company?s website. They are always happy to help their clients build a positive online image using tried-and-tested methods, and the impact of their work can be seen in the large number of businesses that continue to trust them to this day.
