

Real Estate Consultant Is Now Buying Homes In Houston TX

December 31, 2018

December 31, 2018 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Reliable Homebuyers, a business based in Houston, TX, has announced that they are now ready to buy homes in Houston and neighboring areas. This real estate company purchases houses directly from homeowners without using the services of any real estate agent. Those who need more information can go to the company's website or check the web page <https://www.pressadvantage.com/organization/reliable-homebuyers>.

A spokesperson for Reliable Homebuyers says, "Homeowners in Houston who are very anxious to get rid of their homes now have a place to go. We will offer you cash for your home, no matter what condition it is in. If you are really decided to sell your home as fast as possible, call us at once. You will have no problem contacting us because our offices are open 24 hours a day, during weekdays, from Monday to Friday."

Reliable Homebuyers makes use of expert home buyers to go over the details of a property being offered for sale and then they are ready to make a cash offer for a property regardless of its condition or the reason of the homeowner for selling. There are many possibilities as to why a homeowner would like to sell a house as quickly as possible. In all these situations, such as foreclosure, divorce, owning a vacant house, inheriting a property that is not desired by the heir, having a vacant house, having the dreaded tenants from hell, being late in the payments for the home, having a need for major repairs to the home, having a home that has been damaged by a fire, and more, a cash house buyer would be of great help. The company is ready to help homeowners who are in these situations escape from the trap. But first, it would be advisable to actually visit company at their location. By checking their Google Maps page at <https://goo.gl/maps/16LdpmrTndT2>, homeowners who are interested would be able to find their way to the office of Reliable Homebuyers.

The processing time for the selling of the house is substantially reduced by the fact that the buyer will use cash and that there would no real estate agent. After the homeowner has informed Reliable Homebuyers about the condition of the house and the various key details, the company will make a cash offer within 24 hours. If the homeowner decides to accept the cash offer, the company will start the process of buying the house.

Reliable Homebuyers would like to assure homeowners that there would be no hidden fees or expenses. However, they would like to warn homeowners not to immediately trust anyone. Homeowners should carefully examine the reputation of the company that they are planning to sell their home to and ensure that the company is legitimate.

The spokesperson says, "Those who have homes located in Houston or neighboring areas may want to contact us. The huge problem encountered by homeowners in selling a home through a real estate agent or them directly offering their property to retail buyers is that the process would normally require several weeks to be completed. Also, the buyer may suddenly back out and the homeowner would be back to square one."

Reliable Homebuyers has made it their goal to simplify and speed up the process of selling a home for homeowners. This will only require a few steps. The homeowner will contact the company to inform them about the property for sale. This would be easy to do because the company is open 24 hours a day from Mondays to Fridays. Then the next step is for the company take a look at the details of the property as provided by the homeowner so that they would be able to establish a price that would be fair for both parties. Next, the company makes an offer to the homeowner within 24 hours after the details have been provided. The homeowner will have all the time to evaluate the offer and make a decision, but once the homeowner has informed the company that the offer has been accepted, they will close the deal and pretty soon the homeowner will be holding the cash.
