With so many attractions waiting to be discovered, 101 Things To Do Magazine highlights the best activities anyone should try when visiting the iconic Lighthouse on Hilton Head.

The print and digital magazine said a trip to the Harbor Town Lighthouse is a must when in Hilton Head. The Harbor Town Lighthouse is a tower with red and white stripes tucked away by the marina. It has been an iconic landmark in Hilton Head since it was built in the 1960s. It is visited by many for its rich history.

On the other hand, the lighthouse has been a tourist favorite for it offers panoramic views. Visitors can enjoy the stunning water views and gain a fresh understanding of the island's beauty and history.

In addition to learning about Hilton Head's long past, the lighthouse also has a museum. It is one of the island's most informative, engaging, and pleasant activities. The museum also houses one of Hilton Head's most unusual gift shops.

According to The Best Visitors Magazine in Hilton Head, visiting the tower is just the beginning. 101 Things

To Do magazine also recommends exploring the Harbor Town Area. Visitors can try golf, dining, water activities, or shopping!

The 101 Things To Do Magazine has all the information anyone needs to make the most of their visit. "Our team of experts puts together a thorough itinerary that includes everything from dining and shopping options to golf courses and nature trails. We can also help you out if you're seeking some entertaining nighttime activities," the company states.

For several years now, 101 Things To Do has been a reputable tourism resource for Hilton Head visitors. The free visitor's magazine includes a list of island activities in both printed and online versions; the latter can be accessed on its website, https://101thingshiltonhead.com/. In addition, they have all the locations and stores where one can obtain printed copies.

Explore their 101 articles to gain an insider's perspective on Hilton Head Island and Bluffton, SC, the mysterious Daufuskie Island, and three of the nation's finest historic cities: Beaufort, SC, Charleston, SC, and Savannah, GA.

"This magazine is designed to not only give you ideas of how to spend your time, but to give you an appreciation for our land and our people."
