The latest feedback came from a woman named Phillipa Blackwood, stating, "Kristy and the team at LCGC know their stuff! Buying and selling properties can be stressful, but Kristy went out of her way to make our matter seamless. I appreciate the attention to detail and communication, and I did not have to worry about any transaction element. Thank you so much, LCGC team!"

Kristy Fletcher, one of the Solicitors of LEAD Conveyancing Gold Coast, stated that they are hoping to receive positive feedback on the online review website by saying, "We are looking forward to acquiring good feedback from Trustpilot fans. We want positive reception from people like what we have received from GMB. Favourable reviews are a great way of business advertisement nowadays. People seldom visit company websites anymore; they prefer reading reviews from people that already tried that company. They want to see results from other people. We will work harder than before to achieve what we want."

Apart from Trustpilot, LEAD Conveyancing Gold Coast is also registered with Google My Business (GMB), another popular online review website. They have already reached more than 30 reviews from different people in GMB. Most feedback pinpoints the company's responsiveness, professionalism and knowledge in conveyancing. The reviews came from different parts of the state.
