Cali Dreamz Real Estate, based in Rocklin, CA, has announced that they have made available their exclusive listings for houses for sale in Roseville, California. This is to serve the needs of people who are doing research about houses in Roseville. Cali Dreamz chose to provide home listings for Roseville in view of the fact that it is one of the best places to live in the state of California. This assessment is based on a number of factors, including nightlife, crime and safety, weather, diversity, commute, health and fitness, cost of living, outdoor activities, housing, and whether it is a good place for families.

Cali Dreamz Real Estate realtor Jordan Yarbrough says, "Those who are in the market for a home may want to consider living in Roseville, which is regarded to be one of the best places to live in California. Roseville offers residents a place away from the bustle of city life while being close to a metropolitan area like Sacramento. And despite being a suburb, there are also a lot of places to go to when you feel like going out. Those who live in Roseville tend to be conservative and the public schools in this city have a high rating."

With regards to public education, there are 48 public schools to choose from, including Whitney High School, Granite Bay High School, Rocklin Academy Myers, Rocklin Academy Turnstone, and Woodcreek High School. And when it comes to neighborhoods, there are a total of 38 neighborhoods to choose from in Roseville with the top ones being Cirby Ranch, Olympus Pointe, Johnson Ranch, Maidu, and Industrial Area West.

It should also be noted that Roseville provides a more peaceful community compared to other cities. In terms of all kinds of violent crimes such as murder, assault, rape and robbery, and property crimes such as motor vehicle theft, theft, and burglary, the rates are all lower when contrasted with the national crime rates.

And for seniors, statistics from the US Department of Education and reviews of several cities indicate that Roseville is number 24 in the 228 best cities to retire in the United States. And in the list of the healthiest cities in America, Roseville is ranked at number 37 among the 228 in the list.

Cali Dreamz Real Estate provides exclusive home listings in Roseville California, which makes it easy for people to locate the home they have been dreaming of. On their website is a property search feature that allows people to search for homes in Roseville and other cities in California such as Rocklin, Penryn, Granite Bay, Loomis, Fair Oaks, and Folsom. There is also a map search feature that allows people to see where on the map each home can be found. Furthermore, it is possible to search only for open homes or for new construction homes.

Meanwhile, Cali Dreamz Real Estate has garnered a large number of positive reviews. For instance, Michael Z. gave the company a five star rating and said, "I highly recommend using Jordan for your Realtor needs. Jordan and his group were extremely helpful in assisting with the sale of our current home, as well as helping with the purchase of our new home. He worked with all parties involved to make sure that the transition not only stayed as close to on time as possible, but was also a smooth one. He was always ready to show new homes during our search, and answered all questions that helped make our decisions."

Jordan Yarbrough had been practicing his profession as real estate broker for 17 years. He points out that he always makes sure that he offers the best personal service possible and that his work philosophy is based on commitment, expertise, knowledge, honesty and professionalism in all of the transactions that he handles.
