Naturally, they do highlight that this is only possible through hard work and dedication as well.

"If you have any questions about the YourFirstMillionOnline system, or online marketing, and are ready to join be sure to contact us," adds Bren. "We totally love this program and are seeing amazing results. Anyone who knows us also knows that we only recommend products that we use ourselves, so this recommendation really is meaningful."

Thanks to the new Empower Network compensation structure, the time to join a system that helps to build a home business is now. Bren & Mike have been providing training on the Empower Network for some time now and have built a network of people who have been very successful thanks to this. One of the biggest changes that have come through the Empower Network as of late is the way their online member companies compensate their marketers. As a result, the time to start working with them is now.
