February 21, 2023

Adams, Colorado - February 21, 2023 -
Denver, CO - Hermes Worldwide, a premier luxury transportation company located in Denver, is proud to announce the launch of its new VIP Transportation service for executives and celebrities. The company has been providing high-end transportation services for over 30 years. It is now expanding its services to include an even more exclusive and personalized option for its discerning clientele.

"Our VIP Transportation service is designed to provide the highest level of comfort, privacy, and security to executives and celebrities who demand the best," said Jorge Sanchez, CEO of Hermes Worldwide. "We understand the unique needs of these clients and have designed our service to meet their every requirement."

Hermes Worldwide's VIP Transportation service includes a range of exclusive features such as personalized in-vehicle amenities, including refreshments, Wi-Fi, and entertainment systems. Clients can also expect to receive 24/7 access to a personal concierge, who will assist with any requests, from restaurant reservations to event planning.

With Hermes Worldwide's VIP Transportation service, clients can expect the highest levels of privacy and security, including non-disclosure agreements for all chauffeurs and private security services if requested. The company also offers a fleet of top-of-the-line luxury vehicles, including executive sedans, SUVs, and Sprinter vans regularly maintained to ensure optimal comfort and safety.

Hermes Worldwide has built a reputation for providing exceptional transportation services to various clients, including corporate executives, political figures, and high-profile entertainers. With the launch of its new VIP Transportation service, the company is continuing to exceed expectations and offer unparalleled luxury and convenience to its most exclusive clients in Denver.
