London based, Malika Jafrin, recently launched a new Instagram page meant to represent the Malika Jafrin brand and her line of makeup brushes. The internationally renowned makeup artist is best recognized for her work with wedding makeup, and her ideals that everybody is beautiful. Her website says, "Malika Jafrin found herself working in many a backstage as a makeup artist which has equipped her to think on the spot, and use her speed. Working alongside many faces in the Bollywood Industry, including Mahima Chaudhry, is an invaluable experience. Malika Jafrin's beauty portfolio is seen in Asiana Magazine, Kush Magazine, Vanity Magazine, International Makeup Magazine and many more publications."

The launch of the Instagram page marks a new chapter in the efforts of Malika Jafrin, and her line of products, as it will offer visual aids to clients hoping to achieve her looks and learn her skills. While her website offers tutorials and classes on artistry, the Instagram photos will provide fans and customers with the ability to interact, comment, and share their own styles.

The makeup brush set described through the company's new social media platform can be purchased for $29.97, and is made using 100% vegan materials. Each Kabuki brush is designed with a firm wooden handle and high quality bristles which leave minimal fibers behind during application. They are described as being best used for application on eyes and face, and work well for blending, buffing, and contouring. The company's website says, "We use synthetic hair as it is much more hygienic and durable than natural hair brushes which results in longer lasting brushes. Plus, it reduces fibers from falling out and gives you a smoother makeup application for a better experience overall."

For the latest news on Malika and her brushes, Malika Jafrin invites all consumers to check out the new Instagram page, as well as Malika's Facebook page, website, and blog. Here professional makeup artists and the public can read updates, view promotions, and find new products as they are released. All of Malika's social media feeds, including Instagram, Facebook, Pinterest, Twitter, and YouTube can be reached through her official website.
