Nicosia, Cyprus: With Easter fast approaching, NewMe Spa in Cyprus offers a transformative and rejuvenating experience to those looking for a unique way to celebrate the holiday. This year, the high-end local spa is introducing an array of salon and spa services specifically tailored for the season.

Spa Treatments

Guests will find signature facials, body therapies, and massage treatments that combine traditional and modern techniques. Their signature body massage services include hot stones, reflexology, and deep tissue therapies to achieve profound relaxation.

Among their expansive range of body treatments, NewMe Spa also offers the ultimate in anti-aging skin treatments and cellular renewal by combining the power of a deep cleansing process and a range of medical aesthetic treatments such as micro-needling, chemical peels, and eye treatments.

One of their signature treatments is the Body RF ? a multi-functional device that uses radio to actively fight the acceleration of aging, stubborn fat, and cellulite by regenerating collagen and elastin in the skin, reducing wrinkles, and creating a lifted, toned appearance. This service is particularly beneficial for those looking to firm up their skin laxity in principal areas such as arms and legs or to address stubborn body fat on the abdomen and buttocks.

Salon Services

The NewMe Spa facilities immerse clients in a tranquil, modern space. In addition to their full-service spa experience, they offer salon services ranging from manicures and pedicures, eyebrow and eyelash treatments, to soft and glam make-up. Waxing and laser hair removal are also part of the services, along with top-favorite microblading for the perfect eyebrows.

For a truly transformative experience, their spa and salon package is complemented by special holiday rates. Guests are encouraged to continue their wellness and rejuvenation journey through several pampering and spa packages designed for various occasions.

The NewMe Spa team is dedicated to providing an exceptional holistic experience that combines luxurious spa treatments and salon services with innovative technologies and traditional methods. For more information on the services offered, clients may inquire by calling them at +357 22 256291.
