May 22, 2023 -
Phoenix Home Remodeling, an award-winning home remodeling contractor in Chandler, AZ, wants to highlight their Chandler home remodeling services and their recent five star review. They fully understand that each home remodeling project is unique because each homeowner or property owner has different preferences and demands. That is why they always tailor-fit their home remodeling solution to comply with the specific needs and preferences of the client.

Jeremy Maher, co-owner of Phoenix Home Remodeling, says, ?Our clients like how we provide honest advice, arrive on time, adhere to the agreed-upon budget and time frame, and construct a stunning new area they enjoy sharing with their neighbors, family, and friends.?

They have an overall rating of 5.0 out of 5 stars on Google and in a recent review, Jude the Wanderer gave them a five star rating and said, ?My remodel experience was very positive. Mark and Aaron were both personable, reliable, and extremely knowledgeable. They were on time and communicated consistently. Lupe and Chris completed the best tile installation I?ve ever seen, and they took time to ask questions about preferences, etc. The shower glass looks fantastic. I only met Brandon once but he taught me a caulking trick that has saved me tons of time and I mean tons! PHR isn?t the cheapest, but they have a clear business model, outstanding communication, and I never had to worry about the quality of work. My home will certainly sell for a higher price when the time comes. Thanks PHR.?

For the home remodeling project, they will handle everything, from start to completion, including design, electrical work, painting, plumbing, drywall, and more. For instance, they can also install new flooring, cabinets, countertops, and any other features that the homeowner would want for the new kitchen. Throughout the whole kitchen remodeling process, they will ensure the customer informed about their progress and involve the homeowner in vital decisions so that the final outcome is truly a kitchen that the homeowner has envisioned. For bathroom remodeling, they will handle all aspects of the construction, from the tearing out of the old bathroom to installing the different components of the new bathroom, including the new shower door, bathroom flooring, shower fixtures, new wall tiles, new cabinets, new bathtub, vanities, countertops, and more. They will also provide the final touches while making sure that each detail of the new bathroom is perfect, such as the new floor tiles, the new plumbing fixtures, the paint color, and more. They will also provide a two-year warranty.

Launched in 2017, Phoenix Home Remodeling was born from the frustrating experiences of Jeremy Maher, one of the three founders, with contractors in the past. Their local staff are all experts in kitchen, bathroom, and entire home remodeling, where they guarantee top-notch workmanship and a remodel that can turn heads. They can provide various kinds of home improvement services, such as: planning all aspects of the remodel; demolition of all items being removed; building a new wall or removing a wall; new cabinets; new countertops; new backsplash and other tile work; new lighting; new windows; new doors; new flooring; showers; bathroom remodeling; kitchen remodeling; laundry room remodeling; entertainment wall remodeling; and more. They offer home remodels in Chandler, Mesa, Sun Lakes, Ahwatukee, Gilbert, Laveen, Tempe, and South Phoenix.

Jeremy Maher says, ?We understand how frustrating, intimidating, and time consuming picking a good contractor can be. That is why we provide these resources for everyone, regardless if you are a client of ours. We are known for providing advice, even if it is not in our best interest. Several homeowners have told us this article was a key component to choosing a remodeling company, even if they didn't pick us.?
