Okatie, SC - Italian cuisine at its finest is now within easy reach in downtown Okatie, South Carolina, thanks to Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant.

The local restaurant serves delectable Italian cuisines that it can win over even the pickiest eaters. Their dishes, made with recipes passed down from generation to generation, always succeed in winning the hearts of Okatie residents and visitors.

Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant originated in Pozzuoli, a small town on the southern coast of Italy. It was brought to South Carolina by its head chef and owner, Chef Peppe Gialone. According to Chef Peppe, the restaurant was named after his grandmother, who inspired him to develop a passion for cooking. With Nonna Rosa, people who want to try authentic Italian Cuisine Okatie no longer have to leave South Carolina.

The neighborhood Italian restaurant provides a relaxing setting that makes one feel like they have been transported to Italy. The Italian restaurant is open to anyone. From a quick bite and a drink after work, a business dinner, or a romantic anniversary dinner for two, they can handle it.

Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant has many delicious options on the menu. One of the best dishes at Nonna Rosa Italian Restaurant is the Le Cozze, mussels in a beautiful white wine sauce with cherry tomatoes or marinara sauce. Simple, but it showcases the authentic Italian flavor.

Another classic Italian dish they serve is the Veal Saltimbocca. The pounded fresh veal loin is sautéed in a white wine browned butter sauce and topped with prosciutto, spinach, and mozzarella. Another dish on the chef's recommendations is their version of traditional pasta called "Matriciana." A hefty marinara sauce is tossed with rigatoni, garlic, capers, pancetta, and kalamata olives.

Besides the tasty dishes, the Favorite Italian Restaurant offers mouthwatering desserts. On top of the list is their version of Italian tiramisu, traditionally created by hand with mascarpone cheese, ladyfingers, and espresso imported from Italy. Bomba, Cannoli, Profiteroles, and Limoncello cakes are also on the menu.

An equally impressive wine list complements the authentic Italian cuisine at Nonna Rosa. They stock wines from around Italy, not just one or two areas. They have wines from different regions, including Tuscany, Lombardy, and Sicily. Customers may check their menu online at https://nonnarosabluffton.com/.
