

Zenapet Reveals the Benefits of Bone Broth For Dogs in Their Newest Hip & Joint Supplement

March 12, 2019

Costa Mesa, California - March 12, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Zenapet, an online provider of dog vitamins and supplements, recently discussed the benefits of their new Dog Hip & Joint Support product, that contains organic bone broth for dogs. The company states that bone broth for dogs has been shown to offer a number of health benefits, particularly those who are suffering from age or other hip and joint issues. A complete list of the company's products and their benefits can be seen at www.zenapet.com.

Caren Collins, a representative for the company says, "We believe in telling our customers exactly what is in our natural products. We strive to offer the very best products for dogs and believe that it is important that pet owners know the benefits that these products offer."

Glucosamine chondroitin for dogs has shown to be effective as a dog hip and joint supplement. Many veterinarians recommend glucosamine chondroitin for dogs who are aging or have arthritis. Collins states that Zenapet's latest product contains glucosamine chondroitin for dogs and organic bone broth, which has its own benefits.

Natural bone broth has shown to support a healthier digestive system and detox the liver, which provides amazing benefits for dogs. Collins says that the company's dog vitamins and supplements contain organic chicken bone broth, as well as other natural ingredients, which are important to joint health for dogs of all ages and sizes.

The company's latest Hip & Joint supplemental for dogs contains Organic Chicken Bone Broth, MSM, Inulin, Bromelain, Nutritional Yeast, and Kelp that Collins states that may help to improve the joint health of dogs of any age and size. She adds that the chicken bone broth has a flavor, which dogs cannot resist.

Collins says that the goal of the company is to provide pet owners with exceptional products with natural ingredients that support the health of their pets. Zenapet strives to deliver products that are of the highest possible quality that are all designed to help promote overall health and fitness in dogs of all ages and all sizes. She urges those who have dogs with hip dysplasia, arthritis or other joint disorders to visit the company website to learn more about how natural bone broth and other natural ingredients may help to give dogs a higher quality of life.

"Dogs are like family," Collins states. "We want to take the very best care of our pets just like we do our own children, and using all-natural ingredients is important to us." Collins says that those who are interested in Zenapet's Dog Hip & Joint Support for dogs with all-natural ingredients can buy now on the company's website.
