New Moringa Oleifera Product Soon To Be Launched

December 17, 2015

December 17, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -
Deerfield Beach, FL company AdvantaVita is proud to announce that they will soon launch their Moringa Oleifera product. Moringa Oleifera is a tree plant that has been linked to a number of important health benefits. Those who register to be kept up to date with the launch will be able to access the special, private pre-launch 'early bird' pricing.

Chris Johnson from AdvantaVita says: "Our new product will launch very soon, although we don't have the final launch date just yet. Those who register will be able to access a significant discount when it does launch, so we really recommend that you do. The product has significant health benefits, and we're sure you are going to love it."

The AdvantaVita Moringa Power includes premium organic Moringa. It is 100% pure and comes straight from the leaves of the plant, after which it is air-dried, powdered and placed in 400 Mg veggie capsules. The product is certified USDA organic and is 100% made in the USA, which also enables the company to guarantee that it is GMO free. It contains no fillers or stearates.

Moringa Oleifera has been found to help balance blood sugar. Each capsule contains more than 90 essential nutrients, which makes it a very powerful natural product. By working in synergy, the nutrients in this product help to reduce levels of blood glucose, leaving people much healthier.

This natural product has also been observed to help improve mood, while at the same time supporting weight loss. It has also been found to increase natural vitality and energy, and boost metabolism. The product is like a nutritional power pack, which contains all essential amino acids that are needed to grow, repair and maintain cells. "Basically, our new product is health in a little capsule," adds Chris Johnson. "We are so excited about having completed our research and testing on it, so that it will very soon be available for sale. We just know our customers, who trust us to deliver products that significantly improve their overall health, are going to love it."

People can sign up to be kept up to date with the launch details of Moringa Oleifera through the AdvantaVita website. The product will be available through the Amazon marketplace.
