October 12, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -
Windy City Fence Company, a fence contractor serving Greater Chicago, is urging local property owners to find out more about the company?s products and services.

Offering a wide range of residential and commercial fencing solutions, Windy City Fence Company has over 15 years of experience meeting its clients? expectations. The company specializes in custom-designed solutions to protect all homes and businesses regardless of their design or topography. Its team of experienced fence professionals is equipped to handle all types of projects, from temporary fences to long-term installations.

?We serve the who?s who of Chicagoland,? says the spokesperson for the company. ?Our clients include some of the most high-profile celebrities, athletes, and business executives in the city. Our success over the years has been painstakingly built on the back of our commitment to quality and customer service. Whether you are a homeowner looking to mark the extent of your property or a business looking for tried and tested security solutions, you can always rely on us to offer top-notch services that meet the highest standards in the industry.?

Windy City Fence Company?s range of services includes residential fencings such as arbors & lattice, chain link fences, Chicago ornamental iron, composite material fences, dog kennels, iron railings, mailboxes, vinyl fences, window guards, wood fences, and wrought iron fences; commercial fencing such as barbed wire/razor ribbon, bumper posts, chain link fittings, commercial chain link, commercial electric gate openers, inside security fencing, and perimeter security fences; and security gates.

For homeowners, the company?s fencing solutions strike a balance between security and curb appeal, enabling them to enhance the aesthetics of the property while providing basic protection. Its residential fencing also utilizes advanced materials that can stand up against extreme weather conditions, from hurricane-force winds to heavy snowfall. The company?s fencing experts can design fence lines for all kinds of topography including suburban plots to hillsides, wooded areas, and creeks.

Commercial property owners, from small businesses to large corporations, and federal, state, and local government agencies, can also rest assured that the company can cater its services to their exact needs. Windy City Fence Company?s commercial solutions are built using high-quality materials such as galvanized steel, PVC-coated chain link fencing, or aluminum fencing for long lifespans and hardened security. The company also uses specialized tools like hydraulic press brakes and metal grinders for demanding projects that require customized components.

To date, Windy City Fence Company has erected over 3,500 fences, serviced over 2,500 homes, and erected over 1,500 commercial fences. The company?s services have received the love and admiration of its Chicago customers with several reviews praising the team?s professionalism, dedication to going above and beyond, and responsive and helpful customer service. It has even earned an A+ rating from the Better Business Bureau.

A recent review on its Google Business Profile says, ?Very professional installation was able to complete in two days provided longer post in order to accommodate a fence topper was pleased with the final look cost was very reasonable would recommend for your next fence project.?

The spokesperson summarizes the benefits of working with Windy City Fence Company by saying, ?As a family-owned and operated business, customer service is paramount to us. We take pride in helping our clients find the perfect fence for their needs. Once we have settled on the design, we only work with the best manufacturers in the industry to procure our products. This includes trusted names such as National Plastics and Seals Inc., Long Fence, Johnson Bros., and Trion. Our quality workmanship also comes with a limited lifetime warranty.?

Windy City Fence Company has also partnered with financing leaders to better serve its customers.
