

Rockwell Trading Review - Trading as a Retirement Plan

May 21, 2019

May 21, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

78 percent of Americans feel concerned about being able to afford a comfortable retirement, according to the online survey results from the 2018 Planning and Progress Study. 66 percent confided that there is a huge possibility to outlive any existing retirement savings. While most Americans acknowledge the need to prepare for retirement, disorganized finances and budget constraints such as financial support extended to young and aging family members are just a few of the reasons why retirement plans are put off.

One of the Rockwell Trading Bootcamp participants used to be part of these statistics. Alexander had always dreamed of retiring early, but due to the financial burden of having five children, this dream had to take a back seat. This was until an opportunity to meet Markus Heitkoetter, the Founder and Owner of Rockwell Trading happened. During the one-day Bootcamp event, Alexander was introduced to the PowerX Optimizer software which simplifies trading for beginners and even tenured traders. Eager to learn more, Alexander enrolled to be part of Rockwell's coaching program which includes personalized mentoring with Markus and attendance to Live boardroom sessions, allowing members to share best practices.

Alexander is now feeling confident and secure in trading as a retirement plan being under the tutelage of Markus Heitkoetter, who has taught over 360,000 traders worldwide and has appeared on CBS, FOX, NBC, ABC and more. Markus is on a mission to share how simple trading should be which allows people to achieve financial freedom and even live a worry-free lifestyle.
