Phoenix, Arizona: Tish & P.O.E.T. Woods prepares the launch of FoEver Here INC. August 16th 2015 this unique non-profit organization whose focus is raising more money for child funeral assistance than any other company of it's kind.

You may be wondering exactly what child funeral assistance services are. In answer Tish Woods, FoEver Here's Director is quoted as saying, "After interviewing so many families who have lost children age 21 and under in death, we have found that there are certain financial similarities that can not be ignored." Mrs. Woods goes on to say, "There is an obvious alarming need for child funeral assistances programs. FoEver Here is launching on 8/16/15 and is being called, "the most complete solution to date." Hearing things like that feels so good because lots of families will be helped when they need it most."

During these times when unforeseen occurrences are happening more and more, www.FoEverHere.org plays a very important role. A few of the services FoEver Here renders are most outstanding, such as Body Transportation Assistance Services, Rent / Mortgage Assistance Services and Monthly Car Payment Assistance Services. The need for donors becomes overtly apparent when considering the financial, emotional and psychological impact that comes with the death of a child.

"Success is finding satisfaction in giving a little more than you take." ? Christopher Reeve

It makes sense for the actor who played the "Man of Steel" to have felt this way. However we do not have to be Super Man to understand the power of giving. Nor do we have to be from another planet to know how important it is for us to come to the aid of others.

Now as the launch of FoEver Here swiftly approaches it appears that their success will be eminent. Corporate and personal donations make it possible for this fledging non-profit organization to become the leader in child funeral assistance services. The launch of this company means so much to so many people and changes the way these services are rendered industry wide.

FoEver Here seeks to establish themselves as the premiere company in the child funeral and burial assistance community. When compared to other non-profit organization in this arena they offer the most complete range of assistance services. Learn more about their launch and how to donate here. <http://FoEverHere.org>
