Signature Offices 33 N Dearborn St Chicago is a newly opened location for the workspaces being offered for rent by the company in Chicago, Illinois. The company is a provider of office spaces for rent for small businesses and various kinds of entrepreneurs including attorneys and young professionals.

These offices are usually in the form of coworking spaces that offer a number of benefits. This particular office building is conveniently situated in the Central Business District and just across the street from the Daley Center.

Bill Vernon, chief operating officer for Signature Offices, says, "We're very happy to announce our newly opened location at 33 N Dearborn St Chicago. Aside from being located just across the street from the Daley Center, you can conveniently access the Blue Line and the Pedway right from inside our lobby. The Pedway connects to the Daley Center so you don't have to be exposed to the elements during inclement weather.

There are various amenities and features that clients will find convenient at 33 N Dearborn St Chicago. First of all, access to the courts is very easy because the Daley Center is just across the street and people can even use the Pedway to safely cross the street to Daley Center. Food is also within easy reach because of the restaurant and sundries shop downstairs. And for those who want to keep fit, there is a fitness center in the building to provide workers a break and give their bodies a workout at any time of the day. And high speed Internet is available at 500MB of high-speed connectivity.

Bill Vernon wants to point out that there are a number of key benefits from the use of a coworking space for rent. These coworking spaces offer opportunities for networking, increased productivity, diversity, increased well being, cost efficiency, new business, and flexibility. Also it provides businesses that are just starting with an inexpensive way of having an office space for their employees.

Clients who have already been using or have used the services offered by Signature Offices have had positive things to say about the service. For instance, Scott D. said, "Signature Office's great staff handles all the day-to-day as well as any ad-hoc requests, which lets us focus on what we do best without the added stress of managing a space." Kevin H. said, "Signature Offices has a very good atmosphere as far as being able to work, move about and have peace and quiet."

Coworking spaces, which are also called shared work spaces, and are often created using physical collaborative offices from a large suite of offices on one floor of an office building. The offices share community spaces such as kitchen, meeting rooms, and bathrooms.

Bill Vernon wants to stress that because the people responsible for Signature Offices are business people themselves, they fully understand the kind of workplace that is desired by current professionals. They are, therefore, able to provide the right solutions for the needs of these professionals. The team at Signature Offices are also ready right the start on how to provide the necessary resources to people who will use the office spaces so that they will have the best chances of being successful in their business.

Signature Office offers virtual offices for business people that are just starting or those who don't really need a physical office. The basic features of this virtual office package is five hours conference room time each month, unlimited WiFi, video conferencing, a dedicated phone number, a prestigious mailing address, and directory listing.

And then they have the 1-30 person office package that basically includes the virtual office features and adds access to programs and events, 24/7 access to their office space, a choice of furniture alternatives, a private office, and professional office space.

For those who are interested or want more details about the office space for rent Chicago entrepreneurs and small businesses can use for cost efficient operations, they can visit the Signature Offices website, contact them on the phone, or contact them through email.
