July 08, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Chilliwack based house painting contractor All About Painting is pleased to announce that they have received a new five star review for their services. The company, which has been serving Chilliwack homeowners for over 30 years, often receives high praise from clients online for the high quality service it provides.

The company is always pleased to receive positive reviews from its clients. Their strong commitment to great service comes with a very strong connection to their customers and their opinions and needs. Recently, Sherman Hu left a 5-star review for All About Painting, saying, "When Rickey Rain found me through asking Siri for a Pro to help his Chilliwack house painting service professionals, it was an inspiring first phone conversation."

The call led to an intense brainstorming session with Rain, owner of All About Painting. Sherman goes into detail about Rain's professional attitude in his review, stating, "The first time I met Rickey in person, he was cool and casual, as if we've been friends for eons. The photoshoot & videoshoot was so smooth, and Rickey was very agreeable to work with and rolled with it like a pro. I've met other contractors in Chilliwack but there's something special about the way Rickey runs All About Painting. He's passionate about his craft, taking his Red Seal certification seriously, and the way he describes how he desires to "wow" his clients with honest assessment and estimates, no upfront charges on paint/estimates, getting the job done to code, and working on the job diligently till it's complete, and then when a client is impressed with the new home feel? will he then accept payment. I don't see or hear other craftsmen speak with such passion about their craft, very impressive.?

Sherman also praises All About Painting's 100% best price guarantee. He says, "You'd think a Red Seal journeyman would have the opportunity to be a premium service in Chilliwack, but he shares that he wants to serve as many Chilliwack home owners with a fantastic house painting service that they can't help but refer their friends and family to him. Simply inspiring.?" Sherman has since referred All About Painting to friends and family on his social media channels.
