

Discover Rare Designer Furniture Finds at Modern Resale: The Go-To Designer Furniture Store in Los Angeles, CA

March 22, 2024

March 22, 2024 -

Located in Los Angeles, California, Modern Resale has the distinction of being a leading luxury furniture retailer. Over the years, they have been celebrated for their broad range of high-quality pre-owned and new designer furniture. Recently, a new accolade has been added to their list of achievements: they have launched an exclusive collection of rare and limited edition designer furniture. Featuring goods from world-renowned brands, this collection can be purchased at the Modern Resale Designer Furniture Store in Los Angeles.

As a noteworthy player in the elite modern furniture resale business, Modern Resale has carefully assembled an elaborate collection of rare and limited edition designer furniture. This collection represents a new pinnacle in modern design aesthetics. It includes unique items, such as the Kartell Masters Barstool Set, the B&B Italia Frank Sectional, the Tufty King Bed, and the famous Platner Dining Table by Knoll. Each piece was chosen for its distinct design, exceptional quality, and the prestigious designers who created them.

Sarah Whipple, co-founder of Modern Resale, is extremely excited about the launch of these incredible new pieces, saying, "We're constantly unveiling a distinct range of limited edition designer furniture. We're proud of our dedication to furniture excellence. We've shown great attention to detail in curating each piece, ensuring that our customers are presented with a selection that embodies both outstanding furniture quality and novel design. We are devoted to making these excellent pieces of designer furniture accessible at unbeatable prices."

Founded in 2012 by designer furniture industry veterans Stacia Vinar and Sarah Whipple, Modern Resale has made a significant name for itself in the new designer furniture and designer furniture resale industry. Using their combined experience of over thirty years in the high-end furniture and design field, they personally chose the standout pieces that make up the current collection of limited edition designer furniture. "We're here for young professionals, established families that are looking to upgrade their interiors, interior designers, real estate agents who want the best possible staging, business owners, and anyone who appreciates good design," said Stacia Vinar.

They previously announced their new website as part of their ongoing effort to enhance the customer experience. The site features an elegant yet practical design, effectively showcasing the wide inventory that includes this new collection of rare and limited edition designer furniture. It offers an easy-to-navigate system which enables customers to shop by collections, item types, room specifics, or even specific brands. Comprehensive details for each product are provided, including information on dimensions, materials used, current condition, shipping options, and the company's return policy. For more details on their collection and services, visit their website.

Providing more than just retail, Modern Resale also offers a unique furniture consignment service for customers who wish to resell their high-quality, pre-owned designer furniture. "In an era where sustainable living and recycling are becoming increasingly important, we're pleased to offer a platform where people can sell their used items," states Sarah Whipple "This not only promotes sustainability but also increases the variety of rare and limited edition designer furniture available for our customers."

Modern Resale maintains its commitment to supplying the highest quality designer furniture at competitive prices to customers nationwide. The company's commitment to exceptional customer service, efficient shipping handling, and simple return procedures enhances the overall customer experience. By reselling rare and limited edition designer furniture in a sustainable manner, Modern Resale strengthens its standing as a top player in the limited edition designer furniture resale industry.

###

For more information about Modern Resale, contact the company here:Modern ResaleSarah Whipple(310) 838-3800info@modernresale.com4413 W Jefferson BlvdLos Angeles, CA 90016

Modern Resale

Modern Resale, a designer furniture store in Los Angeles, CA, sells new designer furniture and preowned designer furniture, designer lighting, and designer beds, designer sofas and designer furniture accessories.

Website: https://www.modernresale.com/

Email: info@modernresale.com

Phone: (310) 838-3800