Amazing Health Solutions, a health and nutrition company in Catonsville, Maryland, has launched their new 'live chat' facility on their website on <http://www.amazinghealthsolutions.com/>. The chat facility will be an opportunity for customers to interact with the business in real time and have any questions answered. Amazing Health Solutions is highly focused on their customer service and this is the latest tool they have implemented to achieve this.

Ronald Hoff from Amazing Health Solutions says, "Through the chat facility, people can speak to one of our representatives and have any questions answered. We feel that this is an opportunity for us to provide them with more information about how to achieve greater health, for our customers to have any issues they may have resolved, and for us to learn more from our customers to ensure our products continue to be relevant."

The chat facility will be available between 11am and 8pm EST. Outside of these hours, customers can leave a message that will be replied to as soon as possible. It is not clear whether the opening hours will be extended if the service proves to be successful.

Customers are also encouraged to visit the company blog on <http://www.amazinghealthsolutions.com/blog/>. A wealth of information is provided there, which may already answer most questions that anyone can have. They can then contact an operator through live chat for further clarification or to make suggestions.

The blog is an opportunity for Amazing Health Solutions to discuss healthy living steps that anyone is able to implement. At present, it looks at such issues, including why taking sufficient steps is important each day, what weight loss is all about and about Forskolin, which is their personal signature product. Amazing Forskolin is the first product that the company has launched, and it has been gaining in popularity very quickly.

Through the blog, customers can read up on what Forskolin is and how it assists in weight loss. They can also use the live chat facility to find out what benefits the product can have for them. All operators are fully trained in providing this type of information.
