

Wiebe Criminal Defence Announces Relocation and Rebranding in Winnipeg to Elevate Legal Services

March 09, 2024

March 09, 2024 -
Wiebe Criminal Defence, a distinguished legal firm nestled in Winnipeg, Canada, headed by experienced criminal attorney Gerri Wiebe, has unveiled its rebranding and relocation initiative. The firm, formerly recognized under the name Wasyliw Wiebe, has transitioned from its former office at 25 Amy St #107 to a new, energetic hub at 386 Broadway #504, Winnipeg, MB. Accompanying this significant move, Wiebe Criminal Defence has also launched a new logo to signal its brand revamp. As a response to facilitate seamless communication with their clients and cater better to their needs, the firm has updated its contact number from (204) 989-0017 to (204) 799-5956 to facilitate 24/7 availability.

Despite these alterations highlighting a noticeable landmark in the firm's storied voyage, Gerri Wiebe, the strong-willed woman spearheading the firm, perseveres in providing legal representation for a broad spectrum of criminal offenses. Boasting a rich experience that spans nearly two decades in practicing criminal law, Gerri?s commitment to maintain an unparalleled level of professionalism, empathy, and interactive communication is unwavering. Throughout her career, she has passionately contributed her skillset to aid numerous clients in understanding the intricacies of the law while persistently defending their rights and liberty.

?Our decision to relocate our office and rebrand illustrates the next stage in our firm's evolutionary journey and the continued commitment we hold towards our clients,? Gerri Wiebe solemnly commented. ?The relocation gives us the opportunity to stay true to our promise of offering top-notch legal services ? now in a more spacious and easily accessible environment. All these changes, including the significant update in our availability, have been engineered with our clients? convenience and needs in mind, ensuring they can access us when we?re needed.?

Gerri Wiebe, whose body of work includes legal representation for offensive acts such as assault, driving misdemeanors, drug-related crimes, and break-ins, remains tireless in her commitment to her calling. The hallmark change to her practice is its new 24/7 availability for legal counsel and aid - a feature that guarantees that the immediate needs and concerns of her clients are addressed without delay. To add to this, she offers, without charge, a personalized case evaluation and consultation service. This provides potential clients with a valuable opportunity to openly discuss their cases, gain a deeper understanding of their legal standings, and chart the best course forward.

Speaking further, Gerri Wiebe observed, ?The recent makeover of our firm represents our steady development and recognition in the challenging yet fulfilling field of criminal law. We are of the strong belief that by innovating our brand identity and shifting our office to a new location, we can service the legal needs of our clients with a renewed spirit and a more refined efficiency.?

While the firm's physical headquarters and branding have changed, the bedrock of its practice remains unaltered. The firm?s commitment to fiercely defending the rights and freedom of clients who stand in the face of criminal charges is, and remains, the primary pillar of its practice. People seeking expert legal representation for various issues within the ambit of criminal law can find more information about Gerri Wiebe?s varied services on the firm's newly revamped website: https://criminallawyerwinnipeg.com/.

To conclude, Wiebe Criminal Defence's shift to a new office, along with an energetic rebranding drive, form the physical manifestations of the firm's evolution and its unwavering commitment towards its clients. While these modifications constitute a significant part of the firm's growth story, Gerri Wiebe?s promise of professional and compassionate service and her laser-focused commitment to her clients, continue without abatement. With its roots now firmly established in their new locale, Wiebe Criminal Defence is more ready than ever to serve its esteemed clients and the larger community.
