Successful Marketing Solutions, a business in Inglewood, California, is proud to introduce Professor Robert Boyd. As the best selling co-author of "The Art & Science of Success," volume 2, and the author of "Ultimate Guide to Luxury Travel," Professor Boyd is a very respected authority in his chosen fields. Through Successful Marketing Solutions, he aims to show how his business is an alternative to timeshare. People are encouraged to check out Professor Bob Boyd's LinkedIn profile for further information.

"I have worked in the field of travel and tourism for a very long time and I believe I have truly seen it all," says Robert Boyd, Sr. himself. "What I want to do is offer people an alternative to timeshare. Timeshare has its benefits, but it certainly also has some significant drawbacks and I believe there are better options out there."

Bob Boyd has partnered up with an Inc 500 company in order to deliver this alternative. The goal is to ensure that people are able to enjoy the luxury and benefits of timeshare, without having to pay the huge price tag at the same time. He has prepared an eBook on the subject, which is free to download for those who are interested.

Bob Boyd is uniquely qualified to deliver the advice he is giving. He has worked as a travel expert and personal concierge for many years. Additionally, he offers what is considered to be the best travel business vacation club. Membership to this club can be free for anyone who delivers two referrals. This is one of the keys to his new system. "As a member of the Best Travel Business Vacation Club, you will have direct access to thousands of hotels and resorts around the world," adds Robert Boyd. "This access is available all year long. The rates that you will find are discounted and will be much lower than what the general public has access to. We even include major cruise lines, ranging from 4 to 6 stars. Effectively, we make sure that you will never again have to fork out retail prices when you go on vacation."
