Company representative, Kason Shelton, explains, "Wallace Towing will do everything it can to bring the best towing services in Wichita and its neighbouring counties. They will provide the most reliable and fastest services without the pricey and traumatic ordeals that many customers have experienced with other towing companies. Our team of professional tow workers can provide quick and superb service."

Shelton adds, "Wallace Towing is a family operated business. We always put our name on the line whenever we respond to a call. Integrity and honour are the two company values that we hold dearly in the delivery of our services."

The workers of Wallace Towing understand the value of respecting every customer as individuals. They value the customer's time and their properties. They always strive to give impeccable service in the most polite manner commensurate to the respect appropriate to customers. They aim to give the fastest service that will minimize the time lost due to car troubles. They also make every effort to ensure safety and avoid damage to vehicles.

In terms of integrity, Shelton explains, Wallace Towing strictly observe professional work ethics and policies in rendering their tow truck services. They always try to find the optimal solution to address customer problems so that they can move on with their lives as soon as possible. They don't take shortcuts in carrying out their tasks or make hidden charges in their services.

Wallace Towing have been providing various towing and roadside assistance services for years. They provide flatbed towing, medium and light duty towing as well as wheel lift towing. They also provide jumpstart, car lock-out, winch out and auto recovery services.

People may require different types of towing or roadside assistance any time of the day or night. Wallace Towing has established a group of dispatchers available around the clock dedicated to receive calls and requests. These agents are trained to competently assess customer needs. They quickly dispatch the tow team nearest to the customer's location so professional assistance can arrive on time and as promised.

Shelton notes, It is a company goal to cut customer wait time as short as possible and to promptly get our customers back on the road. Time is gold and that's why we always strive to achieve a 30-minute response time to customers. For a list of areas that the company serves, kindly click this <http://gmbp.in/u/5d41ac9e14ab8>.

Vehicle troubles and problems happen arbitrarily at the least expected times. This requires Wallace Towing to make their towing and roadside assistance services available 24-7. Shelton explains, Our services are available any time of the day every day. There are no holidays and no vacations. All it takes is one call to us for you to get fast and reliable towing assistance.

Wallace Towing provides cheap towing rates in Wichita, Kansas to make them manageable to motorists. They believe that quality towing services do not have to come with a hefty price. We make our services affordable to forge stronger relationships with our customers, Shelton concludes.
