Fort Walton Beach Defense Attorney Jay Patel Celebrates Swift Law Enforcement Victory

August 15, 2024

Fort Walton Beach, Florida - August 15, 2024 -
Fort Walton Beach criminal defense attorney Jay Patel announces that all charges against former Okaloosa County Sheriff's Deputy Dylan Gentry have been dropped, thanks to new video evidence that cleared him.

Gentry had been charged by the Fort Walton Beach Police Department with traffic-related misdemeanors and a felony count of tampering with evidence.

Gentry, who worked for the Okaloosa County Sheriff's Office, faced allegations of racing on the highway, reckless driving, and tampering with evidence. However, video footage from his motorcycle showed that he was driving legally, making the arrest baseless.

The video, which Gentry provided, clearly showed that he was following the law, making the charges groundless. This crucial evidence highlights the need for thorough and accurate investigations before moving forward with legal actions.

Jay Patel, the defense attorney representing Dylan Gentry, was relieved by the quick dismissal of charges.

"We are grateful for the swift dismissal of these charges and the opportunity to clear Dylan Gentry's name," said Jay Patel. "The video evidence has been instrumental in demonstrating his innocence. It is our hope that this incident serves as a lesson for both agencies involved."

Gentry himself expressed relief at the outcome, noting that he is now focused on moving forward with his life and career. He thanked Jay Patel for his diligent work and support throughout the legal process.
