First Class Trip Reviews have published their latest blog post revealing some of their best choices for first class airlines. Their reliable reviews can be of great assistance for people planning first class trips. More about this article can be found at <https://firstclasstripreviews.com/blog/our-best-first-class-airline-picks>. First class traveller can take comfort knowing all reviews are 100% authentic as every review on the First Class Review website requires proof of travel before one is granted permission to write their review.

Mark, a spokesperson for First Class Trip Reviews, says, "We're happy to inform everyone that we've rounded up the best first class airline experiences from on-board showers to spacious privacy, dining to entertainment. Your inflight experience just went to cloud nine."

The list for the best first class airline experiences include the Etihad Residence Suite, Emirates First Class Suites, Singapore Airlines First Class Suites, and Qatar First Class.

The Etihad Residence Suite tops the charts for luxury. The suite features a personal gloved butler service; own private lounge in Abu Dhabi; separate lounge and bedroom; real double bed; private bathroom and shower; but with a hefty price tag. It's comparable to a luxury private jet and it is designed for that market. Also included is complete privacy, unlimited Wi-Fi, quality wines and aperitifs, five-star meals including caviar, two TVs, and breakfast in bed.

The Emirates First Class Suites are the best for privacy in first class airlines. The first class suites on the A380 or 777 of the Emirates airline are totally enclosed, from floor to ceiling. The ultra-plush seat can be converted into a complete flat bed. Also provided are a widescreen in-room cinema with mood lighting, live sports options, Wi-Fi, and wardrobe. When it comes to dining, the Emirates First Class Suites have a dine-on-demand a la carte menu and snacks paired with wine or a choice can be made from a selection of bottles in the personal minibar. With the middle suites, travellers can look out using virtual windows. The A380 has an on-board lounge and bar for those who want to stretch their legs or converse with other passengers. Also included is an on-board shower to ensure travellers can freshen up before landing.

For the best in space, the first class airline to beat is Singapore Airlines. The Singapore Airlines First Class Suites are provided with beds that are completely flat and so comfortable they are comparable to beds in luxury hotel rooms. In addition, there is a leather chair including the bed, a pull down table, sliding door for privacy and a wardrobe inside the door, and a 32-inch touchscreen TV. If travellers desire more space, they can fold up the bed during the day. The only downside is that there is no shower, although the bathrooms are large.

Qatar First Class is the best first class airline for groups. Qatar A380 flies from Sydney to Europe, and while other airlines are focused on privacy, Qatar Airways has first class open suites that allow travellers to chat with their companions. Thus, these suites are ideal for groups or couples who don't want to be cooped up in small spaces. It has been said by travellers to have the best bar in the sky, where they can enjoy champagne and caviar, cognac, or a fancy cocktail.

Aside from reviews for first class air travel, First Class Trip Reviews also provide authentic reviews of business class travel, airline lounges, hotels, luxury cruises, travel destinations, events, wildlife safari parks, luxury health retreats, and luxury tours.

For business class travel, reviews available at First Class Trip Reviews include those for Etihad Airways, British Airways, Qantas Airways, Cathay Pacific, Emirates, Singapore Airlines, TAP Portugal, Qatar Airways, Copa Airlines, LATAM Airlines, and more.

Hotel reviews on the site include those for Holiday Inn Santiago, Chile; Novotel Salvador Hangar Aeroporto, Brazil; Pousada Vila Da Barra, Boipeba; Hotel Villa Vhia, Salvador; Grand Hotel Quisisana Capri, Italy; Intercontinental Sydney, New South Wales; Caliel Hotel Brisbane; Shangri-La, Singapore; Jaya House River Park, Siem Reap; Hilton, Kuala Lumpur; Hotel Continental, Oslo; and more.
