WEST LAFAYETTE, Indiana - Riley Reese Purdue, a dynamic entrepreneur and community advocate based in West Lafayette, Indiana, is leveraging her entrepreneurial expertise to offer free business coaching services to new entrepreneurs in the area. Purdue, known for her inherent passion for creating impactful solutions and turning innovative ideas into successful ventures, is taking a proactive and collaborative approach to foster entrepreneurship in the vibrant community of West Lafayette.

This unique initiative aims to not only support aspiring business owners but also to nurture a culture of creativity and innovation within the local entrepreneurial ecosystem. By providing invaluable insights, tailored guidance, and vital resources, Purdue is equipping new entrepreneurs with the tools they need to navigate the complex and often challenging landscape of starting and growing a business in today's competitive market.

The free business coaching program will cover a wide array of essential aspects of entrepreneurship, including comprehensive business plan development, insightful market research and analysis, strategic financial planning and management, effective marketing and branding strategies, and operational efficiency. Purdue's coaching services will be meticulously tailored to meet the specific needs and goals of each entrepreneur, ensuring personalized guidance for maximum impact and success.

In addition to her extensive personal expertise, Purdue plans to collaborate closely with local organizations and institutions, such as the Indiana Small Business Development Center (SBDC) and various community partners, to provide entrepreneurs with a comprehensive support network. This collaboration will amplify the resources available to participants, allowing them to access additional workshops, networking opportunities, and the collective wisdom of experienced entrepreneurs and mentors.

Aspiring entrepreneurs in West Lafayette and surrounding areas are encouraged to take advantage of this unique opportunity to receive high-quality coaching and support.
