Code One Electric LLC is a well-known company providing electrical services in Davie, Florida. They've been serving the Greater Miami Area since 2011, offering a wide range of services for homes, businesses, and industries. With over twenty years of experience, they specialize in things like emergency electrical services and special installations, including GFI and surge protection.

Steve Marriott, who speaks for the company, shared, "At Code One Electric, we focus on delivering top-notch electrical solutions while keeping safety and reliability at the forefront. We want our customers to get timely, professional service that meets their specific needs."

They offer a full range of electrician services. For homeowners, the company can handle everything from installations and repairs to safety checks and wiring. Businesses can benefit from services like office wiring, lighting design and setup, data and communication wiring, and regular maintenance of their properties.

For industrial clients, Code One Electric provides a strong selection of electrical solutions that ensure facilities run smoothly. They also have a 24/7 emergency service that allows them to respond quickly to urgent electrical problems. Their flexibility and fast response are key reasons why they have maintained a good reputation over time.

Additionally, they specialize in services like EV charging station installations, electrical panel upgrades, and smoke and CO detector installations. This variety shows their commitment to meeting the needs of clients in areas like Coconut Grove, Fort Lauderdale, Parkland, and Southwest Ranches.

Marriott emphasized, "We take pride in our work and aim to build lasting relationships with our clients. Our transparent and honest approach helps us provide top-quality service. We are eager to prove our commitment and strengthen trust within our community."

Code One Electric offers free consultations and estimates, making it easy for potential clients to reach out. They're open Monday through Friday, from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, and have different payment options available. They also often provide special deals and discounts, which can be found on their platforms.
