We really appreciated Eric's honest assessment of our roof. He was able to make a minor repair and even went above and beyond to check the rest of our roof for any repairs needed to extend the life as much as possible. He was timely in getting the repair done and had excellent communication. He will 100% get our future business when we need to replace our roof. It's so refreshing to deal with a kind, professional and honest company."

Another customer, Kelly Burch, says, "We had Miller's Home Improvement complete our roof, ridge vents, gutters etc. They did an amazing job! Even after we had a tree limb fall on the roof during a storm and cause some damage, Eric was at our house the next morning and repaired it quickly for us. I would recommend Eric at Miller's Home Improvement to anyone, if you are looking for a job done correctly the first time."
