December 20, 2019 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

East of Maui Board Shop, an Annapolis based board shop, will soon host a Santa Paddle Board Event. With Christmas on its way and this time of year being the perfect time to get a paddle board, East of Maui Board Shop sees the upcoming event as an opportunity for paddle board enthusiasts and the general public to come together and have fun this festive season. "Join East of Maui for some Holiday Cheer and paddle with Santa as he hands out treats around City Dock and Spa Creek," says the event's Facebook post.

Widely considered the premier board shop in the Annapolis, Washington and Baltimore areas for the past 40 years, East of Maui Board Shop provides Annapolis residents with all kinds of boards and other pieces of board sports related equipment. The company has changed greatly over the years, adapting to the latest and most advanced developments in the world of board sports. Through the many changes and adaptations they have gone through, East of Maui has managed to maintain their passion and commitment to board sports, supplying their customers with the very best equipment.

"We continue to evaluate and choose the best products available," says the board shop. "When you buy from East of Maui, we have already done the research, and you can be sure you are buying the best available product to meet your needs. Our product selection is the best of the best, and our staff is the most knowledgeable in the business. While we are constantly working on our website to improve your online shopping experience, we still love doing business the old fashion way: with a handshake, smile and a thank you. We have been helping our customers have more fun on boards since 1979. We can help you have more fun too."

The owners and staff at East of Maui are all avid boarders. The fact that they share their customers' passion makes it so the shop's staff and management are better able to offer advice and assistance. They understand the needs and wants of every customer, and they strive to meet these needs as closely as possible.

Beyond simply selling boards, East of Maui also offers their customers boarding lessons. The shop, with the assistance of their partner, Ultimate Watersports, offers windsurfing lessons in the Annapolis, Baltimore and Washington DC area. By working alongside one of the oldest and largest windsurfing schools in the country, East of Maui has the tools required to help everyone improve their skills, from those learning the very basics to veterans looking to perfect their technique.

Some customers may be looking to simply rent a board or some other piece of equipment instead of buying one, and East of Maui is ready, willing and able to accommodate such customers. The shop offers windsurfing, kayak and SUP from its Annapolis store. They also maintain a fleet of demo boards at Ultimate Watersports at all times.

A number of customers have left reviews on Google Maps praising the great service and wide variety of products available at East of Maui Board Shop. ?I wanted to give a shout out to the guys at East of Maui Board Shop Annapolis, Mark Bandy and Mark Saunders,? says a 5-Star review from a customer named Mike Logsdon. ?Top notch, very service oriented and very knowledgeable easy going "chill dudes.? They hooked me up with a SUP, Paddle, Flotation device and a leash, all at short notice. The board tracked well and pretty quick for an all around great ride.
