Rondell, a well-known European supplier of cookware, is pleased to offer three high-quality stainless steel cooking sets that just entered the market. Choosing the right cookware set will make any cooking experience better for sure. This is why Rondell has developed three different high-quality sets that will come in handy at the kitchen.

The Rondell vintage stainless steel kitchenware set is beautifully designed to combine both style and functionality. Every piece of the set has a unique three-layered impact-bonded base so they keep them hot much longer and preventing food from sticking and reducing cooking time. The vintage cookware sets include casserole with tempered glass lid 2 qt, 3 qt, 5.2 qt, saucepan with lid 1.5 qt, saute pan with lid 3.1 qt, open frypan 10". Tempered glass used for lids is a type of glass processed by controlled thermal treatments to increase its strength compared with normal glass.

The savvy stainless steel cookware has bright red handles that are comfortable to hold. Besides that, the casseroles fit into one another most compactly and foldable handle on the lid allows to use the storage space effectively and also saves the space in a dishwasher. The 18/10 stainless steel is one of the most popular types of steel used in cookware production, and 18/10 means that 18% chromium and 8% nickel were used.

The flamme stainless steel cookware set is another high-quality kitchenware set where Rondell uses unique two-stage aluminum impact-bonded technology. This technology means that aluminum disc is applied to the bottom of the cookware for even heat distribution. Also, lids are designed to drain liquid without extra effort. This set along with the others suitable for all types of stoves, including inductive. Besides, they are all dishwasher safe.

Company spokesperson Viktoria says, "There is no need to look further for the perfect cooking set that will come handy at every kitchen. The all-in-one cookware set will make every cooking enthusiast happy. Every piece of our set does not only have an elegant design but also made from high-quality stainless steel that helps to preserve the heat and fastens the cooking."

Rondell doesn't hesitate to demonstrate confidence in their cookware and gives 25 years guarantee. Viktoria explains that a special method of non-stick coating provides dishes Rondell not only with durability and increased wear resistance, but also a flawless appearance throughout the shelf-life. A triple in-stamped and then fused bottom technology helps preserve the maximum of micro-elements, nutrients, and vitamins while cooking. She continues that Rondell dishes are made so that food was easily and fastly cooked, but also it was really tasty and most useful for health and mood.

Additionally, Rondell cookware is chosen and recommended by everyone who cares about their health and quality of cooked dishes, by a real guru of cooking and Haute cuisine – professional chefs. Rondell kitchenware is used by masters of Haute cuisine, such as the Italian Academy Del Gusto.

The reviews on Rondell products generally indicate that customers find the packaging and contents come exactly as advertised. The company cares about the safety and packaging a lot so the package always demonstrates the object that is in it, gives basic information about it: shape, size, number of constituent elements, purpose, characteristics and recommendations for use. Also, customers note that every part of cooking sets is super easy to clean and measuring lines in the pots and the lids with holes to drain liquids are very convenient Rondell combines the European tradition of unique high-quality production, modern technology, and eco-friendly materials to enhance culinary skills daily. But the company cares not only about the profit: part of the funds from all purchases of Rondell utensils is every month transferred to the Fund for children with cancer. Since the beginning of the campaign, with every customer help, Rondell managed to help hundreds of children, paying for treatment for a total of more than $950,000.

Enthusiastic chefs and cooking lovers may visit Rondell's Amazon store to look closer to their unique kitchen sets. Furthermore, interested parties may connect with Rondell through their official social media pages to stay up to date with their latest news and important announcements.
