Yeovil ? Home Instead Yeovil, Sherborne & Bridport is pleased to announce the expansion of its services with the launch of Home Care Yeovil, providing high-quality, personalised care to seniors in the local community. This expansion ensures that older adults in Yeovil can receive compassionate support with minimal wait times, thanks to a dedicated team of Care Professionals living locally.

Home Care Yeovil is designed to meet the unique needs of seniors, offering assistance with daily activities, companionship, and specialist care. The service aims to help older adults maintain their independence while receiving the care and support they need in the comfort of their own homes.

?Our mission has always been to provide outstanding home care that allows people to remain safe, comfortable, and happy in familiar surroundings,? said Mark Hunt, owner of Home Instead Yeovil, Sherborne & Bridport. ?With the introduction of Home Care Yeovil, we can now support even more families in the area with minimal wait times, ensuring that their loved ones receive the care they need, when they need it.?

Home Instead Yeovil, Sherborne & Bridport has built a reputation for providing high-quality care, and Home Care Yeovil continues that tradition with:

Tailored Care Plans ? Every client receives a personalised care plan designed around their specific needs and preferences.

Highly Trained Care Professionals ? All team members undergo comprehensive training to ensure they provide safe, compassionate care.

Minimal Wait Times ? With Care Professionals based in Yeovil, Home Instead can respond quickly to new care requests.

Support for a Range of Needs ? Services include personal care, meal preparation, dementia care, medication reminders, and companionship.

Local Care, Local Community ? Care Professionals live within Yeovil and understand the needs of the local community, making care more personal and accessible.

At Home Instead Yeovil, Sherborne & Bridport, maintaining the dignity and independence of clients is a top priority. Home Care Yeovil is built on the belief that care should be centred around the individual, ensuring that clients feel comfortable and supported in their own homes. The service offers companionship, which is essential in combating loneliness, and provides practical assistance with daily tasks, allowing seniors to maintain their routines and hobbies.

?Our clients are at the heart of everything we do,? added Mark Hunt. ?We take the time to understand their interests and personal preferences, so we can match them with the right Care Professional who will not only provide support but also meaningful companionship.?

Home Instead Yeovil, Sherborne & Bridport has been serving the local community for years, earning the trust of families through its reliable and compassionate approach to home care. Many families have expressed their appreciation for the difference Home Instead has made in their loved ones? lives:

?The care provided has been exceptional. The team truly cares about their clients, and their attention to detail makes all the difference.? ? A Home Instead Yeovil client review.

?Home Instead has given us peace of mind knowing that our mum `is well cared for. The carers are kind, professional, and always go the extra mile.? ? A Home Instead Yeovil client review.

?Mum loves the visits from her carers. They brighten her day and provide the support she needs without making her feel like she?s losing her independence.? ? A Home Instead Yeovil client review.

In addition to Home Care Yeovil, Home Instead offers a wide range of services to meet the varying needs of seniors in the area, including:

Dementia Care ? Specialised care for those living with dementia, ensuring they receive the support they need while remaining in familiar surroundings.

Personal Care ? Assistance with bathing, dressing, and grooming to help seniors maintain their dignity and hygiene.

Medication Reminders ? Ensuring clients take their prescribed medications on time.

Meal Preparation ? Preparing nutritious meals that align with dietary requirements and preferences.

Companionship Care ? Friendly and engaging support to help seniors stay socially active.

Live-in Care ? 24/7 support for those who need constant care and reassurance in their own home.

Home Instead Yeovil, Sherborne & Bridport remains committed to upholding the highest standards of care. All Care Professionals are trained in best practices for safety and hygiene, ensuring that clients receive professional and compassionate support at all times. The team follows strict guidelines to ensure a safe and comfortable environment, and regular training keeps them updated with the latest best practices in elderly care.

?Families trust us because they know we take care of their loved ones as if they were our own,? added Mark Hunt. ?We are proud to bring Home Care Yeovil to the community and look forward to making a meaningful difference in the lives of seniors.?

One of the key benefits of Home Care Yeovil is the availability of Care Professionals living within the local area. This means clients can access high-quality care without long wait times. The localised approach ensures that Care Professionals are familiar with Yeovil and its community, allowing them to provide personalised, responsive care.

?We understand that when families need care, they need it quickly,? said Mark Hunt. ?That?s why we ensure minimal wait times and a dedicated team ready to step in and provide the support families need, when they need it most.?
