Bayfield Bags has launched on their Amazon page a bag for mens toiletries that is like getting two bags in one. It has a roomy top portion that also has a pocket for small items, and the bottom part of the bag can be zipped open to store even more items like manicure tools, a shaving brush, a toothbrush, and a small pill container. To ensure durability, this toiletries bag has heavy-duty zippers and double-stitched seams that are expected to last for years without splitting or breaking.

Bob Allen, a spokesperson for Bayfield Bays, says, "We are happy to announce the release of our Mens Toiletry Bag Shaving Dopp Case for Travel. This is a classic leather Dopp bag for men that will get better with age. Our leather Dopp kit bags are great gifts for men, great gifts for dads and they make a great gift for groomsmen."

Bob Allen also wants to point out that this particular toiletry bag for men has a spacious interior since it measures 11 inches by 6 inches by 5 inches. Thus, men can use it to store and organize all of their toiletry supplies in one compact bag. The separate zippered bottom part of the dopp bag is designed for storing shave soap and razor, and shave brush in the mesh pockets. It also has a wide elastic band for tweezers, razor clippers, and more. The big zippered and roomy upper compartment of this Dopp bag is for keeping bigger items, such as aftershave, shaving cream, toothpaste, and more.

Bayfield Bags has several travel bags, including mens toiletries bags, that are available on Amazon.
