

Chester Personal Injury Attorneys At Schuster Law To Host Webinar

April 15, 2020

April 15, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Chester, PA ? At Schuster Law, the Chester personal injury attorneys are hosting their next legal webinar on what steps personal injury victims should consider taking after being involved in an accident.

?On April 15, 2020, at 9:30 pm, we plan on sharing some legal information that could be helpful to those involved in an accident that caused personal injuries. There are several types of compensation available for victims to receive through personal injury claims or lawsuits. We want individuals to be aware that they can seek financial aid to help pay medical bills, cover lost wages, and other losses they may have suffered,? stated the firm?s managing attorney, Ken Schuster.

The personal injury lawyers in Chester at Schuster Law have over 30 years of experience serving residents in Chester and surrounding areas. The firm provides legal services to those who have dealt with car and motorcycle accidents, medical malpractices, slip and falls, workplace injuries, and nursing home neglect.

Mr. Schuster shares, ?The purpose of this webinar is to ensure victims are aware that they have a team of injury lawyers at their disposal for legal advice when needed. We strive to give back to our community and provide clients with an unmatched level of personal service and dedication. Our goal is to protect those involved in personal injury accidents and fight for the maximum compensation that they are entitled to.?

The legal team at Schuster Law also extends their services out to other areas of practice like general and commercial litigation, family law, social security disability, and premise liability claims.
