August 21, 2025 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

United International Removals has just opened a new depot in Colchester, marking an exciting expansion of its services in South East England, Essex, and East Anglia. This move is designed to improve the company's ability to meet the needs of a wide range of customers, including families, businesses, students, and expatriates coming home. The new facility fits into the company's plan to strengthen their already comprehensive offerings, such as International Removals, European Removals, and International Shipping.

With over 25 years of experience in the industry, they provide removal services to various international destinations including Australia, Canada, Hong Kong, India, New Zealand, Singapore, South Africa, Dubai & UAE, and the USA. The company also offers European removal services to countries such as Austria, the Canary Islands, Cyprus, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Malta, the Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, and Switzerland. By partnering with leading overseas shipping lines, United International Removals ensures flexible international shipping options at competitive prices. With this addition, United International Removals aims to make its operations in these areas easier and more efficient, reflecting its commitment to making international moves straightforward and stress-free for clients everywhere.

Ross Dunlevy, the Director at United International Removals, shared his excitement about the expansion: "The new depot in Colchester represents a vital enhancement in our service framework. It allows us to provide better regional coverage and ensures our clients in Essex and East Anglia receive personalized and efficient moving services. Our objective has always been to make the process of international relocation as straightforward and stress-free as possible. This facilitates closer and more productive interactions with our clients and community."

The opening of the Colchester depot responds to the increasing demand for local management of International Removals in Essex Colchester and East Anglia. The company sees this expansion as a chance to strengthen its ties with the community while continuing its strong focus on worldwide service. United International Removals shows its dedication to quality through a full range of services, which include packing, customized quotes based on factors like the size of the move, destination, and timeline, door-to-door service, and global delivery.

For many years, United International Removals has been known for its high-quality service, which is based on a methodical approach to packing, shipping, and managing customs clearance. The Colchester depot is a key part of maintaining excellent customer service, in line with the company's main goal of meeting clients' needs with accuracy and care. These initiatives underline their commitment to offering storage, expert packing, and careful handling of all items, whether for migrants, retirees, or those moving from abroad.

"The addition of the Colchester depot offers multiple layers of benefits not only to our strategy but, most importantly, to our customers," added Dunlevy. "This operational enhancement allows us to handle more complex moves efficiently, providing peace of mind backed by our experienced teams and thorough processes. Moreover, it strengthens our footprint in the area and embodies our mandate to offer meticulous international and European removals support."

Alongside the new depot, United International Removals will keep offering organized support through their national and international network, helping clients manage their moves smoothly. They cater to a wide range of clients including migrants starting a new life overseas, UK expats relocating for work, students moving abroad for their education, expats returning home, retirees, families relocating for a change in lifestyle, businesses shipping goods overseas, and individuals transporting inheritance goods. Businesses, schools, and individuals alike will gain from this enhanced level of service dependability and local involvement.

United International Removals has spent over 25 years building a name for trustworthiness and customer-focused service. The new Colchester depot solidifies their status in the removals and shipping world. It's also a testament to the company's long-standing promise to provide smooth relocation services while adapting to changing client needs. With this expansion, United International Removals remains dedicated to blending expertise and new ideas to tackle current relocation challenges. As they move forward, they aim to continue to build trust with their clients, strengthening their position as a top choice for international and European removals. Covering the whole of the UK, the company continues to make international and European moves straightforward and stress-free for customers nationwide.
