Pensacola, Fla. ? Travel restrictions attributed to state regulations regarding the current epidemic have created difficulties for residents of the Gulf Coast area who are looking to travel for upcoming vacations but have been advised not to cross state lines. Local Pensacola RV Park, Avalon Landing, is suggesting planning a ?stay-cation? in Pensacola to take in all the sight-seeing that is often taken for granted.

The Pensacola RV Park is located a short drive away from many site-seeing spots that are still open to the public. Avalon Landing is a minutes? drive away from the famous Naval Aviation Museum, Historic downtown Pensacola and Fort Pickens. It is also located in the same town as the beautiful Gulf Coast beaches which often host festivals, air shows and are home to many highly renowned seafood restaurants.

Those who have had their vacation plans disrupted by the current epidemic are encouraged to research the many amenities that Avalon Landing has to offer. The campsite offers free wireless internet and satellite cable TV to campers, in addition to restrooms and laundry facilities available on site. The well renowned Pensacola RV campground provides its visitors many conveniences making it a cost-efficient option for those who are looking to vacation, but not travel too far away from home.

Avalon Landing RV Park is currently open for bookings. Only five miles east of Pensacola, the park secludes itself to give the best camping experience. To learn more about them or to make a reservation, call (850) 995-5898 or visit their website at www.avalonlandingrvpark.com.
