

Companion Maids Cleaning Service Expands Professional Cleaning Services

September 12, 2025

CHICAGO, IL - September 12, 2025 -
Companion Maids Cleaning Service, a Chicago-based professional cleaning company established in 2013, announces expanded service coverage throughout the Chicago metropolitan area, including suburban communities such as Naperville and Joliet, to meet growing demand for reliable residential and commercial cleaning solutions.

The expansion comes as the company experiences increased requests from households and property owners seeking consistent, professional cleaning services that extend beyond Chicago's city limits. The company now provides comprehensive cleaning solutions including standard house cleaning, apartment cleaning, Airbnb property maintenance, move-in and move-out deep cleaning, and post-construction cleanup throughout the greater Chicago region.

"The demand for dependable, thorough cleaning services has grown significantly across the Chicago metro area, particularly as more people recognize the positive impact professional cleaning has on their daily lives and mental well-being," said a Media Contact for the company. "Our expansion allows us to bring the same level of quality and consistency that Chicago residents have come to trust to communities throughout the surrounding suburbs."

Companion Maids has built its reputation on delivering thorough, consistent cleaning services that address the specific needs of each property type. For apartment dwellers, the company's cleaners are trained to navigate the unique challenges of smaller spaces and high-traffic areas. Property managers and Airbnb hosts rely on the service to maintain their rentals in move-in ready condition between tenants, while homeowners appreciate the attention to detail in maintaining their living spaces.

The company's approach emphasizes thorough training and vetting of all cleaning professionals, ensuring consistent quality across all service areas. Cleaners tackle often-overlooked areas and hard-to-reach spaces that property owners might struggle to maintain on their own. This comprehensive approach has earned the company a 4.5-star rating based on 133 customer reviews.

Recent customer feedback highlights the consistency of service quality across different locations and property types. One client noted the company's ability to maintain the same high standards when servicing properties in both New York and Chicago, praising the thorough move-out deep clean that left a three-bedroom, three-bathroom home in spotless, move-in ready condition.

The expansion addresses a growing recognition of professional cleaning as an essential service that contributes to overall quality of life. Many clients report that having reliable cleaning support reduces stress and improves mental health, particularly during busy periods when maintaining a clean home becomes challenging.

Companion Maids also accommodates modern convenience preferences through online booking and payment systems, making it simple for customers to schedule and manage their cleaning services. The company offers eco-friendly cleaning products upon request, addressing environmental concerns while maintaining cleaning effectiveness.

Founded by Chicago locals in 2013, Companion Maids Cleaning Service offers house cleaning, apartment cleaning, Airbnb cleaning, move-in and move-out cleaning, post-construction cleaning, and deep cleaning services. Operating seven days a week, the company serves Chicago and the surrounding metropolitan area with a commitment to delivering professional, reliable, and affordable cleaning services.
