San Antonio, Texas ? Oftentimes, what makes holidays so special are not the common traditions, but rather those which are unique to individual families or groups of friends. Likewise, gifts, knick-knacks, ornaments, and decorations tend to be more special when they are personalized. As it comes time to begin holiday shopping and decorating, the San Antonio gift shop, Monarch Trophy Studio, is highlighting their selection of customizable ornaments and gifts.

Monarch Trophy Studio offers classic sphere ornaments in red, green, blue, or yellow. These ornaments can be purchased with a pre-planned print, or Monarch Trophy Studio can customize the print with a chosen phrase, picture, or logo. There are two different sizes of sphere ornaments available: 2.5 inches or 3.5 inches in diameter.

Another type of ornament that Monarch Trophy Studio offers are thin pieces of jade printed with a personalized picture, name, or phrase. These jade ornaments are offered in several different shapes, such as a diamond shape or a bell shape. Among other unique, customizable ornaments, Monarch Trophy Studio also offers odd-ball gifts, such as a classy silver metal rose with a personalized charm or a heart-shaped trinket box that can be engraved. These types of gifts are perfect for family members, friends, bosses, or co-workers who are difficult to shop for. They look great on display in any home, but because they are customizable, the recipient will feel special.

Monarch Trophy Studio is one of the largest award shops in America, offering a wide range of different types of awards, but they also specialize in personalized gifts and ornaments. It is their goal to help relieve some holiday stress by providing their customers with a wide range of customizable holiday items.
