A real estate solutions company with more than eight years of experience in the industry, Maverick Property Group is one of the few premier real estate solutions companies in Lake Norman. The company understands that there are unexpected events in life that can cause people to sell their homes so they primarily focus on making this a much easier process for local homeowners. Since their founding, their foremost priority has been to improve neighborhoods and communities, one house at a time.

As noted on their website, Maverick Property Group can purchase homes quickly, make cash offers (usually within 24 hours), and follow through with transactions that offer no stress whatsoever to their clients. They are a family-owned company that is capable of providing assistance to homeowners in various real estate matters thanks to their experience, continued investment in real estate education, and their nationwide network of resources.

Maverick Property Group also provides home selling assistance services to those who are looking to sell their houses fast. They advise homeowners to keep in mind that there are some key factors to consider in order to sell a house in today's real estate market. First and foremost, homeowners need to learn to price their property correctly. If they put a high price tag on their property, they will have a very hard time finding a buyer. On the contrary, if they price their property too low, they will be leaving money on the table. Home sellers need to remember that each property and each buyer is different.

The real estate company also provides assistance with home buying. They explain that most people already realize they can save money if they buy houses that have been foreclosed. However, many still do not know that they can save money even before houses have been foreclosed. Potential homebuyers must also know that they can purchase properties at cheaper prices at auctions compared to when they hit the market. Maverick Property Group is willing to teach people the reasons behind some real estate agents' specialization in the pre-foreclosure stage.

In addition, Maverick Property Group also sells properties directly to buyers. Many of the properties that they sell are move-in ready and have been renovated. They also have experienced realtors who can help buyers look for the home that they want. Furthermore, The company is also willing to help people who want to become better private lenders, contractors, and agents. They also give out helpful and educational ebooks for free.

Numerous clients have said great things about Maverick Property Group. Aaron Teague says in a 5-Star Google review, "Our initial buyer backed out at the last minute so we were scrambling to find someone else to buy our home as our new home's closing date was fast approaching. Upon seeing Maverick Property Group during a web search, we entered our information on their site. In almost no time, we received a call from Maverick inquiring about our sale. Right from the start, Tom provided the best communication and customer service to us! Always respectful, a constant positive attitude, and always available, Tom and his team were right there assuring us of a smooth sale of our house. We highly recommend Maverick Property Group to anyone needing to sell their home!"

Anthony Moore also says in a 5-Star Facebook review, "It's been my distinct pleasure to have worked with the Murphy family in different capacities. Having coached thousands of small business entrepreneurs, I can honestly say the Murphys have the key component many are missing. That key ingredient is sincere integrity. I can not think of a better group of individuals to work within any capacity."
