Attorneys Praised For Gaining Entry To Super Lawyers 2020 List

December 31, 2020

December 31, 2020 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Birmingham, AL-based Heninger Garrison Davis, LLC would like to extend their warm congratulations to the members of their team who were recognized among the list of 2020 Mid-South Super Lawyers. No fewer than six remarkable individuals were selected from the firm for this prestigious and exclusive list, placing them well ahead of competing lawyers from across the state.

Heninger Garrison Davis states, "We are delighted to congratulate the 2020 Super Lawyers Erik Heninger, Steve Heninger, Tim Davis, Gayle Douglas, Lew Garrison and Bill Bross, whose commitment to their clients and overall legal acumen have won them a great deal of respect among their community and peers. We also offer our congratulations to our four 2020 Mid-South Super Lawyers Rising Stars: Jeanie Sleadd, Caroline Hollingsworth, Mark Ekonen and Taylor Bartlett. Their contributions to our team and our clients cannot be overstated, and we will continue to watch their careers with great interest as they go from strength to strength. They are all a testament to the high standards of service our community has come to expect from us."

Super Lawyers, a rating service run by Super Lawyers Magazine, makes it their mission to seek out the best lawyers out of more than 70 practice areas. These individuals must universally have attained a high degree of recognition among their peers as well as garner professional achievement, according to the magazine's website. Super Lawyers also takes several other factors into account in order to uncover the most accomplished attorneys in each practice area, utilizing independent research, peer nominations and even peer evaluations as part of its selection process.

The firm explains, "Super Lawyers selects attorneys using a patented multiphase selection process. Each candidate is evaluated on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. Each year, no more than 5% of the lawyers in the state are selected by the research team at Super Lawyers to receive the honor of Super Lawyers."

They continue, "The selection process for the Rising Stars list is the same as the Super Lawyers selection process, with one exception: to be eligible for inclusion in Rising Stars, a candidate must be either 40 years old or younger or in practice for 10 years or less. All attorneys first go through the Super Lawyers selection process. While up to 5% of the lawyers in the state are named to Super Lawyers, no more than 2.5% are named to the Rising Stars list."

The attorneys at Heninger Garrison Davis are specialists in numerous fields, including medical device injury, business litigation and intellectual property, insurance disputes, nursing home abuse and neglect, sexual misconduct and much more. While their reputation speaks for itself, describing a firm that offers the community access to only the finest lawyers in the region "and possibly the entire country" Heninger Garrison Davis is adamant that their expertise represents only a part of the true value of their abilities. Instead, they assert that their clients most appreciate being able to work with lawyers whose competence is outstripped only by their compassion and personable conduct.

One highly-rated review on the firm's Google profile helps illustrate exactly why their legal services and assistance are in high demand. Laura Coe's review describes the team's approach to her case as well as their work ethic and client-focused service, saying, "My husband and I are in the midst of a class action, medical device failure. We believe the manufacturer of the product is liable for his 15-year ongoing medical battle with the device. Even though we have not met face to face with the attorneys, HGD has always been quick to return phone calls and answer our calls the first time, not after days and days of leaving voicemails."

Coe goes on to say, "Our contacts are busy doing all the legwork, representing other clients in court, etc. They are professional, keep you informed and answer your questions quickly and honestly to the best of their ability. Sometimes, the answers aren't what you want to hear, but sometimes the truth hurts. Their experience and willingness to work ethically as a team shows! I plan on writing another review down the line as our case proceeds through the judicial system."
