September 21, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Pure Body Naturals, based in Houston, Texas, has launched a new hair treatment therapy, which is the Argan oil hair mask. The hair mask is now available on Amazon with free shipping when choosing the Amazon Prime membership. The introductory price is $10.95.

"We won't be offering it at this price for long," states company spokesperson Jonathan Stevens. "Once our introductory period is over, we'll go up to our normal price."

The company has not yet made known what the price of the hair mask will be after the introductory period is over, but does advise those who are interested to purchase soon before the price increases. Those who are members of Amazon Prime can enjoy free shipping during the product launch, and a small shipping charge will apply to customers who are not members of Amazon's free shipping program.

The hair treatment includes a number of natural ingredients, designed to promote healthy hair. "This is not simply an ordinary Argan oil hair mask," states Jonathan Stevens. "It has these ingredients to make hair feel amazing and these include Argan oil, rosehip seed oil, shea butter, vitamin B5, coconut oil, and vitamin E, all packed into an eight ounce jar."

Pure Body Naturals offers a number of products that include premium, natural ingredients, all designed to promote overall well-being and healthier living. This newest addition to their product line offers natural treatment for dull, limp hair, includes only natural ingredients, and is backed by the company's 100 percent customer satisfaction guarantee.
