Fresno CA: Equity Assets Real Estate sells Real Estate in Tarpey Village Fresno CA

Tarpey Village is one of the census-designated places in Fresno County. This welcoming community with a rural feel is home to around 3,390 residents. Among its assets are the highly-rated public schools serving the neighborhood.

Residents of Tarpey Village enjoy all the benefits of big city living while having the advantage of small-town ease. "If you enjoy the best of both worlds, Tarpey Village is perfect for you," said Jason Nenadov.

Tarpey Village has an amazing restaurant scene and various businesses. There are lots of shopping options and community events. ? Tarpey Village is also one of the most affordable places to live in the country,? Jason added.

Most of the homes for sale in the community are single-family homes ranging from small to medium-sized. There are also apartment complexes and high-rise apartments.

Equity Assets Real Estate caters to several Fresno and Clovis communities. These communities include European Park, Copper River, and many others.

Its owner, Jason Nenadov, has been in the real estate business since 2008. He provides guidance and assists buyers and sellers in marketing and purchasing properties. Having built a business primarily on word of mouth, he treats his clients with the utmost detail as he delivers expert advice all along the way.

Christina Signorelli, a satisfied client, wrote in her review, ?Jason was a GREAT realtor! Being first-time buyers the process was overwhelming and he helped reduce the stress and was with us every step of the way and provided with us valuable and advice pertaining to the dos and don'ts of home.?
