November 29, 2021 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Labrosse Real Estate Group, a real estate agency in Ottawa, Canada, has published a testimonial video from a satisfied client who sold a home through the agency, on its Youtube channel.

The client, Martin L., speaks about his positive experience with the agency where they helped him sell his old house for more money than he was expecting to get for it and also helped him find a perfect new home that was a safe purchase.

In the video, Martin says, "Labrosse Real Estate made the process of selling my last condo much easier and streamlined it. In my family's experience, one thing that Labrosse Real Estate has done for me is helping me find value where perhaps I wouldn't have found it myself. It helped us close the deal faster. To my great surprise, he (Nick Labrosse) was able to get my condo sold over the asking price and he basically paid himself with money over the asking price. So I technically got a realtor selling my home for me for free. If I had a friend ask me whether or not it is a good idea to sell their property themselves, I would strongly, strongly, recommend them to call Labrosse Real Estate."

Nick Labrosse responded to Martin L.'s glowing testimonial by saying, "It is always a pleasure to help out fellow Ottawans who are looking to get a new home in this vibrant and diverse city or those who are looking to sell the property that they have here. I'm glad that we were able to help Martin sell his home at a price that was more than he was expecting to get. It is always heartening to see that our clients recognize and appreciate when we go above and beyond in delivering our real estate services. Thank you so much Martin for leaving us this review.
