

President's Day Flag Sale at Star Spangled Flags

February 17, 2022

February 17, 2022 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

In honor of Presidents' Day this weekend, StarSpangledFlags.com is having a sale on their Betsy Ross flag. This flag is often considered to be one of the first flags to represent the United States of America.

Betsy Ross was a seamstress and upholsterer who lived in Massachusetts during the Revolutionary War, which took place after the United States of America declared independence from the British Monarchy. According to tradition, Betsy Ross stitched the first American Flag with 13 red and white stripes and 13 stars on a blue background representing the 13 current colonies. The stars are in a circle, pointing outwards, as a way of representing that none of the 13 colonies were better than, or above the others. While there is no documented proof that this story is true, the flag design still bears the Betsy Ross name.

This weekend, Star Spangled Flags will be offering the Betsy Ross flag, and their entire selection of premium American and Historical Flags, at a 10% discount with a coupon code displayed in a banner at the top of their website. All flags from StarSpangledFlags.com are 100% made in the USA using American labor, shipping, and materials.

The Betsy Ross flags feature a bright white header, two sturdy brass grommets, heavy duty nylon fabric that is sun-protected, lock stitches on the seams, 4 rows of stitching on the fly end, and reinforced corners to prevent fraying from the wind. Customers love the Betsy Ross flag, with Verified Reviewer Chris saying, "The fabric is very high quality and the design is beautifully stitched, exactly as pictured with the 13 stars pointing outward from the center. If you're looking for a Betsy Ross flag, I highly recommend this one!" Anyone interested in purchasing the Betsy Ross flag can do so on this page: <https://starspangledflags.com/flag/betsy-ross/>

Flags from StarSpangledFlags.com are treated to dry fast and resist deterioration from weather and direct sunlight so that the flag's colors can stay bright and bold. The flags are crafted using only premium materials and make great gifts for neighbors, veterans, first responders, athletes, and friends.

In addition to the Betsy Ross flag, Star Spangled Flags sells the national American flag in a selection of sizes and different materials depending on what customers plan to use them for. They have a quality, heavy duty polyester flag which is designed for high wind environments, and cotton flags which are usually flown or displayed indoors, or sometimes used to drape over a casket at a funeral.

Star Spangled Flags also offers a full selection of state flags from every state of the US, as well as Military flags for the various branches of the US Military. These include the flags for the US Marine Corps, US Navy, US Army, US Coast Guard, and 2 versions of the US Air Force flag. Star Spangled Flags even sells a double sided POW-MIA flag to represent those members of the US military who have not returned from war.

In addition to the Betsy Ross flag, Star Spangled Flags sells a few other historical flags, which can be found on this page. These include the Gadsden "Don't Tread On Me" flag, as well as the Bennington flag in celebration of the Spirit of '76, and the Christian flag displayed at most evangelical churches.

Customers shopping for flags from StarSpangledFlags.com may also be delighted to find their selection of international flags, including flags from over fifty different nations around the world. All flags are made using the hardest thread, so stitches stay strong, and constructed in the USA using the highest quality materials. They offer a selection of flag poles, flag pole brackets, and holders so customers can get the flag setup of their dreams.

This Presidents' Day Sale ends at 11:59 p.m. on February 21st, so don't miss it! Anyone interested in purchasing the flags can visit the company's website at StarSpangledFlags.com.
