ProClinix Sports Physical Therapy & Chiropractic Wellness PLLC, which is based in Armonk and Pleasantville, NY, has announced that Dr. Christopher Genn, DPT, has joined their team in their Pleasantville, NY location. Further details about the doctor and the services he will offer are available at the clinic's website. The clinic is looking forward to many years of excellent service.

"Dr. Genn is a true expert in his field and we are so happy to welcome him to our staff," says Dr. Alan Siegel, DC from ProClinix Sports Physical Therapy & Chiropractic Wellness PLLC. "He will be operating from the clinic in Pleasantville, NY, at 220 Tompkins Avenue, which is located within Athletes Warehouse."

Dr. Genn spent his first two years of training at Christendom College in Fort Royal, VA. He obtained a bachelor degree from Mercy College in 2011. In 2015, he obtained his Doctorate in Physical Therapy (DPT) from the same college. Additionally, he is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

"I joined the ProClinix team in September 2015," says Dr. Genn. "I am excited to work as a physical therapist and help people of all ages with varying needs. Because of my strength and conditioning background, I enjoy focusing on physically active patients, particularly runners." Dr. Genn has also been involved with the clinic's Facebook and Twitter page, allowing patients to speak directly with the various therapists and receive information, advice and guidance on a variety of physical therapy related issues.

Dr. Christopher Genn is a true family man and enjoys spending his free time with his wife and two young daughters. Together with his family, he enjoys a variety of hobbies and activities. He loves spending time outdoors, doing things such as trail running, hiking, and swimming. Additionally, he plays in a local men's league basketball team. He and his wife are very involved in their community's Catholic Church, which includes leading both the middle school and high school youth groups.
