WA based Unlocking The Body Massage Therapy (UTB) would like to reach out to local residents who may be in search of a relaxing day spa in Puyallup. The spa offers a variety of treatments and services, specializing in massage therapy. In addition to being known for a welcoming atmosphere and deeply relaxing sessions, Unlocking The Body's treatments and services have been known to provide relief from many different forms of pain. A wide range of massage spa packages are available, and clients are free to choose whichever sounds most appealing to them.

The team at Unlocking The Body Massage Therapy strives to be the most balanced health facility in Puyallup and beyond. They help with everything from auto accidents to work injuries and more, often providing near-instant relief from chronic pain. They pride themselves on offering almost every service or modality their community needs, and clients are encouraged to get in touch directly should they fail to find a specific service they are looking for on the spa's website.

Many aspects of their services set Unlocking The Body apart from other massage therapy centers, and the fact that they offer many modalities of massage therapy is just one that makes them unique. For instance, Unlocking the Body Massage Therapy never requires their clients to sign up for any contracts or automatic deductions from their checking account. They are also open six days per week and maintain a high degree of flexibility in scheduling to accommodate their clients' busy schedules.

"Our multiple, diverse practitioners have years of experience under their belt and go through a strict training and continuing education to make sure they can deal with even the most complex of issues," while offering our community the advantage of highly affordable rates," the massage therapy center says. "Each Therapist has a specialty and specific passion in their respective fields. We focus on what is best for you as an individual and do not force our Therapists to be salespeople. We only recommend what we feel is in your best interest and not what is best on our paycheck! You are supporting a local, female-owned business which has a vested interest in caring for employees of UTB, our patients and everyone in the community."

Taking care of oneself is something everyone could stand to do more of. At UTB, they believe everyone should be looking into taking better care of themselves (and that the best time to start doing so is today). The spa is dedicated to being the best massage therapy center in Puyallup, and this can be seen through how passionate and dedicated their massage therapists are. They have years of experience in both complex and specialized care and make it a point to take steps to continue to grow as professionals. Unlocking The Body is one of the best all-round massage therapy centers in the area, and their clients can always be sure they will get the best possible care.

"I worked with Janelle to see if I could try manual lymphatic drainage massage on a chronically enlarged lymph node from a past infection," says a 5-Star review from Angela. "Not only was she very thorough, she also spoke with another specialist about how effective this approach would be. When I showed up for my next appointment, she shared that although MLD is helpful for managing drainage of the area, the actual size of lymph nodes usually holds the shape it has taken. I really appreciated her expertise, seeking out more information on my behalf and for being honest. She let me change my appointment that day to a less expensive therapy so that I saved money. If I have any more MLD needs, I will definitely come back here. Thank you!"

Araceli also says about their experience, "I went in for an L&P claim. Every time I went in, I had a different massage therapist. They were all very kind and attentive. I was always asked beforehand how I was feeling and what areas of my body were hurting. Made me feel comfortable and helped me relax each time I went. Thank you for the great experience overall, the receptionists were all very nice as well. I like that I could text them and they respond immediately, too."
