January 05, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Emu Run Experience, a tour company based in Alice Springs, NT, Australia, is happy to announce that they have launched a new 4 day tour of Uluru. This will take travellers on a journey to the heart of Australia and enjoy various highlights in this activity-packed four-day tour. They want to emphasise that the extended length of the tour will provide clients with the opportunity to immerse themselves in the remote outdoors of Australia, enjoying the beautiful views of heritage-listed sites while seeing first-hand ancient cultural practices. In addition, they can enjoy some canapes and drinks while watching the one-of-a-kind Uluru sunset.

Patrick Bedford, managing director of Emu Run Experience, says, "Spend three nights in Australia's red centre and four days exploring its most beautiful attractions. Take in stunning views of heritage-listed sites and witness ancient cultural practices. Enjoy drinks and canapes as the sun goes down and tick the coveted Uluru sunset experience off your list. You'll travel, eat, and sleep in total comfort and be guided by friendly, professional tour guides on this once-in-a-lifetime adventure."

The 4 Day Outback Escape ? Uluru and Kings Canyon tour offers several highlights. These include the: Uluru Sunset with a glass of bubbly; Uluru sacred sites; Kata Tjuta Walpa Gorge; Maruku Dot Painting Workshop; Curtin Springs paper tour; Karrke Tour Aboriginal Experience; Kings Canyon Watarrka National Park; and Mount Connor Lookout (Alice Springs start only).

On the first day, they will pick up clients from their Alice Springs accommodation and leave at about 8:00am. On the way to Uluru, they will stop for morning tea and lunch will be at Ayers Rock. Next, they will go to Sails in the Desert to check in. The remaining part of the day will be spent at Uluru where clients will take short walks while learning about sacred stories and traditions. An important part of the day is watching the sun set while enjoying canapes and premium drinks. After sunset, clients will be brought to Sails in the Desert for a three-course dinner.

On day 2, the travellers will get to enjoy a sunrise view of Uluru while drinking tea or coffee. After sunrise, travellers will return to the hotel for breakfast and at about 9:00am, they will get to visit Kata Tjuta for the Walpa Gorge walk, after which they will return to the resort for lunch and prepare for the Maruku Dot Painting Workshop. The travellers can spend the rest of the day in whatever way they want.

On day 3, they will proceed to Ayers Rock at around 9:30am. The first stop will be at Curtin Springs where the travellers get to learn about the production process in the Old Abattoir. After lunch, they will go to Kings Creek Station and on the way, they will sup at Mount Conner Lookout. The last activity for the day will be the Karrke Aboriginal Tour Experience.

On day 4, participants will take an early morning Kings Canyon walk. After lunch at Kings Canyon Resort, they will start their trip back to Alice Springs. There will be a stopover at Erldunda Roadhouse for some afternoon tea and to meet the Emus up close.
