Atlanta, Georgia - March 01, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Personal injury attorney Kenneth S. Nugent is providing legal support to accident victims in Dalton, Georgia. Readers who have been hurt due to the fault or negligence of an individual or business are urged to contact Kenneth S. Nugent, P.C., to find out how to best proceed following their accident.

Personal injury law covers a wide variety of accidental injuries including those caused due to vehicle accidents, slips and falls, workplace accidents, defective consumer products, medical negligence, canine bites, nursing home abuse, premises liability, and more. The United States legal system requires that plaintiffs conclusively prove that their injuries are a direct result of negligence, gross negligence, reckless conduct, or intentional misconduct on behalf of the party at fault. The law also applies to situations where the defendant has strict liability for accidents that occur in their domain.

In case of vehicle accidents, since Georgia is an at-fault state, the victim is required to file a claim with the insurance company representing the party at fault. Insurance adjusters, thus, try their best to minimize their client's liability. This includes intimidation tactics or even cajoling the victim to take a smaller payout by pretending to care. Once a low offer is accepted, the victim effectively waives off their rights to pursue any future legal claims.

Ken Nugent talks about how insurance adjusters essentially entrap personal injury victims by saying, "A lot of our clients want to take the first settlement that they are offered, to quickly pay off their medical bills, and move on from the accident. However, some injuries might not even manifest externally until several weeks or months later. So, you will end up being stuck with mounting treatment bills that add financial stress to your physical recovery. The insurance companies know very well how to convince you and many others like you to settle the claim as quickly as possible to increase their year-end profits. With an experienced attorney such as me on your team, you will have the informed counsel you need to get the maximum compensation that you are legally owed. We will fight on your behalf to ensure that you have the support needed to fully recover from your injuries with complete peace of mind."
