

COEM Recommends Musli Supplements to Enhance Libido Naturally

March 07, 2023

Charleston, South Carolina - March 07, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

The Center for Occupational & Environmental Medicine is bringing the many health benefits of Musli to Americans struggling with fatigue. Readers can find out more about the product by heading over to <https://coem.com/store/MUSLI-60-CAPS-p307265381>.

Safed Musli is an all-natural herb that has been used in the Indian subcontinent for over 4000 years. It is a rich source of over 25 phytonutrients and is free of sugar, starch, yeast, wheat, gluten, corn, barley, soy, fish, shellfish, nuts, tree nuts, eggs, and dairy products. It does not contain any artificial colors or flavors and is non-GMO.

The potency of the rare herb was first documented in Ayurveda, the classical texts that are now popularly known as a system of alternative medicine all around the world. COEM is now making Safed Musli available in the US in its pure and natural form to help Americans fight fatigue, increase stamina, revitalize the body, and improve energy.

In Ayurveda, Musli is considered to have the ability to enhance libido naturally and counteract sexual as well as general debility. While more conclusive evidence is needed, Musli has also been regarded to have anti-inflammatory properties with the potential to improve male fertility, fight obesity, help with conditions such as cancer and diabetes, provide relief to those suffering from osteoarthritis, and contribute towards faster recovery following strenuous activity.

The spokesperson for COEM talks about the benefits of Musli for overworked and fatigued individuals by saying, "It is indeed a sign of the times that even the best among us are struggling to keep up with the chaos that engulfs the world today. The challenges of modernity are not something that evolution ever prepared us to face. Regardless of the efforts you put into maintaining your mind and body, it may seem that it is hard to catch a break from the madness and truly feel whole at the end of the day. It is at such times that we should turn to the ancients and draw from their wisdom. Chlorophytum Borivilianum, or Musli as it is commonly known, has been revered by Ayurveda for millennia and it may just be the key for you to get the most out of your hectic schedule. If you want to increase your energy and get more done today, this product is a game changer. It also improves strength, enhances workouts, and aids in exercise recovery. COEM's Musli supplement contains 250 mg of Safed Musli powder per capsule. The center recommends 1 capsule twice a day, preferably with warm water. One package of COEM Musli retails for $25 on the center's website and contains 60 capsules for a 30-day regimen. The product is made from the highest quality herbs in a cGMP facility that is FDA-registered. The center offers free shipping on orders of $25 or more via USPS First Class Mail.

COEM, based in North Charleston, South Carolina, has been specializing in environmental, functional, and integrative medicine for over 45 years. The center practices Board Certified and Evidence-Based fields of medicine to help patients with programs such as mold toxicity, chemical toxicity, allergy and immunology, chronic fatigue, thyroid, cardiovascular health & age management, neurodegenerative diseases, autoimmune diseases, biodegradation, and more.

One reviewer talks about the experience they had with the center's supplements by saying, "Both doctors jumped right in to help me manage my health care and provide a treatment plan that was thorough and personalized. They put me on a supplement protocol that not only managed my weight loss but it has helped with my energy and fatigue. I take them daily and I ABSOLUTELY LOVE MY RESULTS!!!?
