

Las Vegas Office Moving Company Provides Customized Solutions to Meet Your Unique Business Needs

April 05, 2023

Las Vegas, Nevada - April 05, 2023 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

87 Movers Las Vegas is a family-owned and locally operated moving company that boasts a great number of years in the Nevada moving industry. All this experience has enabled them to become very proficient at several different types of residential and commercial moving tasks. Among the moving services that the company excels at is office moving.

The owner of 87 Movers Las Vegas, Tony Yee, says, "Our company takes great pride in the organized, caring, and efficient way that we help businesses move offices from one location to another. It's a service that we are always happy to discuss with our Las Vegas commercial customers and much information about our office moving services is also available, check our office moving service."

Yee went on to talk more about his company's commercial office moving services. He pointed out that they take their commercial moving projects very seriously because they realize what a stressful and daunting task this is for a company. It's the type of move that if it doesn't go smoothly can significantly impact a business's operations. That's why they are proud to be known as an office moving company that is proficient and reliable.

The company owner also mentioned that they are a full-service office mover. This includes offering door-to-door office moves that are well-planned and organized from the first phone call to the finished project. He stated that every aspect of their office moving projects is geared towards minimizing company downtime.

These business moving projects also can include a wide variety of support services. Including the most challenging part of any office move which is packing. He says that they take great care when handling a company's computers, printers, file cabinets, chairs, desks, and other important office equipment. They like to treat all the business items they move as if they were their own.

Yee stated, "Our commercial moving company in Las Vegas has a great team of people who are ready to help our clients with any moving issues they may face during the entire process of a commercial move. We have great equipment that can help our team transport your items without any hassles at all. Our trucks are well maintained and fully functional to ensure smooth operation during pick-up days, scheduled appointments, or delivery."

He was also pleased that 87 Movers Las Vegas can provide office moving services at affordable rates. Yee added, "Commercial customers that would like to know more about our office moving services can watch our YouTube videos on the subject."

Customers that have used this company's office and other moving services often leave rave reviews about that experience. Bob Schiller proclaimed, "We were so pleased that we selected 87 Movers. Kenny and Caleb and their fantastic team were excellent with a challenging move on a very hot day. They packed the truck expertly and unloaded it with care. They never let up and when they were finished, we were all smiles. The experience and knowledge of Kenny and Caleb were impressive and besides all of this, the company's pricing was more than fair. Special shout out to estimator Tony who was my initial contact; he was the best!"

Steve Ballstadt wrote, "Fantastic company! Tony and Cathy were very prompt, responsive, and fairly priced. Our move went very smoothly. Movers showed up on time, packed professionally, worked hard, and delivered our items without incident. Would highly recommend this company for a local move!"

The company owner added, "We have been providing excellent and professional services for our clients as we have opted to be more than just your average commercial movers. Our years of experience have helped us develop strategies that make us stand out from other moving companies. We are proud to say that most of our customers were referred by existing clients." Yee also mentioned, "In addition to having YouTube videos on many of our moving services, we are on Facebook too."
